

Unchanging Nature of God

When some changes enter your life, it's overwhelming, confusing, and sometimes even terrifying. Change can make you feel lost and abandoned in the midst of a storm. Sometimes you are left reeling, trying to grab ahold of anything you can find that's strong and stable.

Change is a part of life. Rather than being surprised or scared by change, you need to understand that it is a part of life and that by holding onto your faith, God will help see you through.

The unchanging nature of God and His word are the only real thing on which you can depend. It all starts with firmly accepting that God loves you and anything that happens in life must be viewed from the perspective of God's unfailing love for you.

You can guarantee that difficulties will arise, but if you trust Him, you will see Him move and you will grow into the people He made you to be. Things will continue to change, but no matter what changes you face, He is your unchanging God.

- "Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail." (Lamentations 3:22).
- "Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the LORD, who has compassion on you." (Isaiah 54:10).
- "And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from his love. Death can't, and life can't. Our fears for today, our worries about tomorrow and even the powers of hell can't keep God's love away."
