

Encouragement By lcl

Everyone seeks to accomplish something or to be released from something. If the goal is elusive or difficult to achieve it may take some time to be realized. It is easy to become discouraged or distracted on the journey. Hope needs to be received to keep the dream alive. Hope can be obtained from events or others that spur us on to success. God knows this and offers many type of encouragements to be found if we look for them. A beautiful sunset, a kind word, compassion in some form that speaks strongly to our hearts and spirits. Thus, we know that we are not alone, but are cared for in some manner. Seek and you will find. There are many stories and writings in scripture other than these few examples. Be encouraged for God knows you and can help. Gain strength by speaking these thoughts from God aloud on the topic of your desire to feed your spirit and will.
