Vol. 4 No. 3 ~ Autumn 2019

The Pied Viper, a Breyer Classic Andalusian Stallion customized and graced with a sculpted thread mane and tail by Nancy Strowger in 1979, has not had a hair out of place for 40 years! This three-time VCMEC Online World Champion was photographed by owner Ardith Carlton.

A Word to the Fore: Aurora Borealis Shinin' Down on Dallas

What a road it's been in the three years since the start of the VCMEC Model Horse Re-View!

As I wrote in that first issue, VCMEC's ideological road-map from the start has been a lyric from Muppet band Dr. Teeth and the Electric Mayhem's song "Can You Picture That": "Beat down the walls, begin, believe, be, begat." By that measure, we were halfway there then, and still halfway there now...but at least now we're closer to the next milestone, after surviving our monster move from Japan back home to the U.S.

I'll be honest: Uprooting from our Gunma house of 12 years, and Japanese life of 19 years, was a nightmare of stress, over-100-degree heat, grimy sweat, and sadness. We would have never made it without the kindness and generosity of friends and neighbors who helped us understand the bureaucratic requirements and satisfy the rigid recycling laws for furniture and appliances.

We're also grateful to Yamato Transport. Although we only contracted with Yamato to pick up packed boxes over a three-day period and transport them, the Yamato crew pitched in to help us pack too, which was hugely helpful. Yamato then brought our belongings safely around the world by sea, and delivered the truckful in fine shape to our storage unit here in Texas a few weeks ago.

So here we are, not far from Dallas, staying with family as we recover from the financial smoking crater of our $19,000 international moving costs, and save up to complete the rest of the work needed to get the VCMEC Hobby House--our ultimate home, in Battle Creek, Michigan--up to code.

In the meantime, we're right in the middle of a mecca for model horse showing, Region 5 of the North American Model Horse Shows Association! We had a great time attending A Ball in the Fall last month and the Wichita Falls Model Horse Expo last weekend, and had encouraging discussions with area showholders about the possibility of offering classes for vintage customs next year. We'd certainly help fill 'em!

Plans are nearly complete for the 2020 edition of our own live show, the semiannual Vintage Custom Model Equine Congress! We're pleased to announce that the show itself will be held on lucky Friday, March 13 in the ballroom of the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Addison, Texas, as part of All-Con! There will be a swap meet and other model horse-related events throughout the weekend, too. Thanks so much to All-Con for this unique opportunity!

What's All-Con, you may ask? Why, it's an epic four-day event that fills an entire hotel with an astonishing range of fandoms, hobbies, and experiences--"both popular and obscure....a treasure trove of ideas and experiments," as All-Con says--and they've been doing it for 16 years!

I've attended three past All-Cons myself, and had a fantastic time getting a look at so many things I hadn't known existed! We're excited at this chance to not only offer an entertaining time for model horse hobbyists at VCMEC and beyond, but also introduce our hobby to others. We hope to see you and your vintage custom lovelies there! The VCMEC 2020 show packet will be posted soon on VCMEC.org and the Vintage

Get Ready for Remake Roundup!

Now that we're finally back home in the U.S., we've hit high gear in developing a new website for vintage custom model horses and the folks who love 'em: RemakeRoundup.com!

RemakeRoundup.com gathers a consignment marketplace for vintage customs and other hobby goodness from back in the day, an appraisal service, Original Finish body sales to help continue the customizing craft, and more. Watch for its debut in December!

Vintage custom model horses offered on consignment on Remake Roundup will have the opportunity to find appreciative new homes not only online, but also in person, as they'll be front and center when we vend at live events, too.

Your vintage custom models consigned in October and November, before RemakeRoundup.com goes live, will receive an especially great rate in thanks!

If you happen to be in the Midwest, Ardith Carlton will drive from southwestern Michigan to north Texas on Oct. 23-25 and gladly pick up consignment vintage customs along the way, saving you postage and providing your horses a smooth trip. For details, please e-mail us at remakeroundup@gmail.com or contact Ardith on Facebook.

See you in December at the Roundup!

OVERALL RESERVE CHAMPION: OPERATION METEOR (AC)

Victory Lap!

Shortly before press time, and without revealing who'd won what, owners of each division's Overall Champions and Reserve Champions were invited to share their thoughts about these star vintage customs. Here's what they had to say!

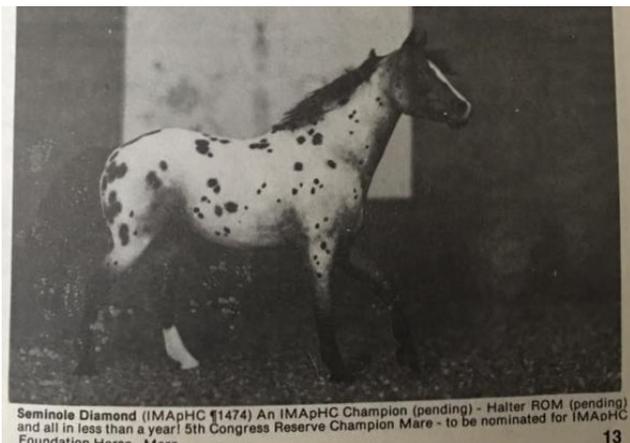

ROCKLEDGE DIAMOND LARK

Bay semi-leopard Appaloosa mare, CM by Kathleen Maestas in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Color and Overall Champion Workmanship

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Rockledge Diamond Lark is an Breyer Adios CM into an Appy mare by Kathy Maestas. She originally had a foal that matched but the poor baby hasn't been found. She is a grand ol' '70s piece that I fell in love with when I first saw her. She hasn't shown much and is still lovely today, her mohair is getting that aged 'purply' hue but is still as new, and she will always have a place here."

[Editor's Note: Some of Rockledge Diamond Lark's earliest history was recently uncovered when the Vintage Model Horse Publications group on Facebook posted some scans from the April 1977

Seminole Diamond (IMApHC #1474) An IMApHC Champion (pending) - Halter ROM (pending) and all in less than a year! 5th Congress Reserve Champion Mare - to be nominated for IMApHC Foundation Horse - Mare 13

the Summer 2017 and Autumn 2017 VCMEC Model Horse Re-View for our retrospect on that pivotal event] that nobody wanted, so I kept her. Kathy Maestas pieces were not all that desired then. I assume at one time Chris owned her and Marney got her somehow. She is a cutie and something different."

ATTN EVILDOERS

Grey Thoroughbred stallion, CM by Nancy Strowger in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Reserve Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "When Liz Bouras parted with some of her epic collection of Strowgers in 2012, I was so grateful to acquire this alert guy! Nancy Strowger had been into the 1972 Japanese anime series 'Science Ninja Team Gatchaman.' A 1994 update of its theme song features an English-language rap pre-faced with the line 'Attention evildoers,' and that seemed like a natural fit for him.

"He brought me a big thrill in 2017, being voted the champion of the 1960s-'70s division at A Good Vintage IV in Kentucky!"

JAMIL MHURATT

Grey Arabian stallion, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) in the 1980s

1980s Overall Champion Color and Overall Champion Workmanship

MON NAFA RANI

Grey Arabian mare, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) in the 1980s

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Cheryl Ridge writes, "This full brother and sister were brought to life by Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig in the late 1980s.

issue of editor Marney Walerius' monthly publication "The International Model Horse Journal." Then known as Seminole Diamond, this flashy mare was owned by Marney at the time, and did her mighty proud!

(Print is the next best thing to eternal, and a wealth of information on now-vintage customs and their artists awaits in hobby publications from the time. We're in the process of building VCMEC's library; in the meantime, be sure to check out great reading galore in the Vintage Model Horse Publications group on Facebook!)]

DIAMOND PLAYTIME

Chestnut extended blanket P.O.A. mare, CM by Kathleen Maestas in 1978

1960s/'70s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Diamond Playtime--her name was on her photo by Chris Cook--is a cute little POA mare, customized from a Breyer Classic QH Stallion by Kathleen Maestas in the '70s. A drastic change from standing to galloping, and she is ADORABLE!

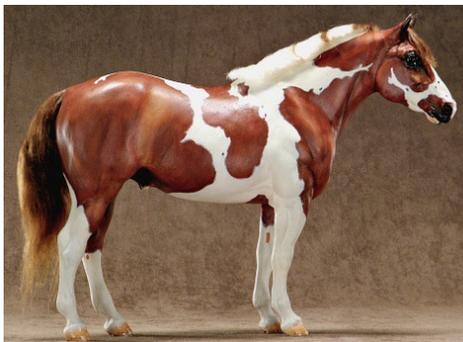

"She was one of the 'leftovers' from the Marney Walerius estate sale [in 1992; see

Now in their 30s, these early works of Sarah's keep on keeping on. I am proud and delighted to be their custodian. Sarah exported Rani to me in 1989. Jamil joined us from Germany around 10 years ago.

"Rani was shown for a number of years but had a big break when I took a break from the hobby. Even now my involvement is mostly limited to this VCMEC show series. Jamil had been largely unshown previously so this series became the perfect place to showcase him.

"This is my second season participating in the VCMEC show series and it has been a thrill to have both of these precious horses awarded highly to date. My thanks to the judges and others working hard behind the scenes."

APACHE RED CHIEF

Chestnut tobiano Paint stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1988

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Cheryl Monroe writes, "Apache Red Chief is a Breyer CM by Lisa Rivera-Shepard about 1987-1988. He was purchased directly from the artist after he did well at the Chicago Model Horse Congress held by Marney Walerius. I begged for him and Lisa finally gave in. He is very striking and has that charisma that just says, 'Look at ME!' He has been lightly shown and does pretty well for an Adios!"

BELLE KABONG

Sorrel Draft Mule molly, CM by Carol Williams (remake) and D'arry Jone Frank (repaint/hair) in 1986

1980s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Named with a wink toward El Kabong, Quickdraw McGraw's masked persona who conks criminals with his guitar, Belle Kabong was once a Breyer Adios. Carol Williams and D'arry Jone Frank collaborated to transform her to this judgey draft mule molly (they also collaborated on customizing at least one other Traditional-size drafter in the mid-1980s, dapple grey Percheron stallion Legaciam, owned by Irene Lynne Conrad--your trivia fact for the day ;^)).

"For years she was known as French Toast, and was part of Nancy Olson's superstar stable of drafters in the '80s and '90s. She eventually went to vintage custom fan Tara Oliver, who kindly sold her to me in 2012 (yep, the same year Attn Evildoers joined the gang--that was a mighty fine year!). Belle Kabong is an astonishing piece of work--much more so than my camera could capture-- and I'm so happy that she placed well!"

OPERATION METEOR

Chestnut American Saddlebred stallion, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1995

1990s Overall Champion Breed and Overall Reserve Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "The nickname of late '40s Standardbred trotting star Rodney was 'The Big Train'--and that nickname attached itself to this blazing guy the moment I first saw him!"

"Impressively tall and hefty to hold, Operation Meteor was remade from a Breyer Western Horse (!!) by Lisa Shepard, then Rivera. He started off in the star-studded model showbarn of Ann Bilon, one of the sweetest souls the hobby has ever known! Ann sent him my way in 1997, along with a lovely paper show photo she'd shot herself--the photo he continues to show with today (thanks again, Ann!). I'm so tickled with this big score for 'The Big Train!'"

WATERS UNDER EARTH

Bay varnish roan with spotted blanket American Indian Horse mare, CM by Julie Froelich in 1985

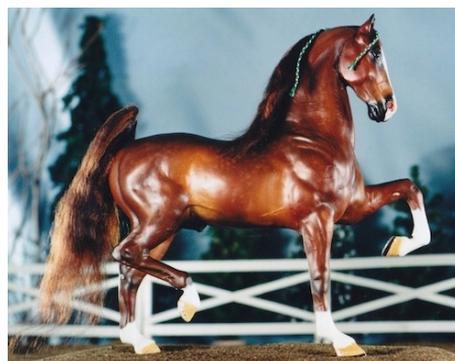

1980s Overall Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "A second Victory Lap for Waters Under Earth, wheee! Her owner, Corky Visminas, wrote about her in the Winter 2018 Victory Lap. This time, Corky asked if I could share any memories about one of our very favorites.

"We were both wowed some years ago when we got to see Julie Froelich's reference photo of Waters Under Earth, who she'd created for Arizona model horse show Copper Country Live's auction. Over the years, Corky and I thought about that App beauty often and wondered where she was...until 2012 (it really was a magic year!), when Jeanne McCullough offered her for sale. What a sweet shock to find her, and a dream come true for Corky to be in time for her! Jeanne sent her to my brother in Texas, where I picked her up and hand-carried her to Corky in Japan.

"This year Waters Under Earth was one of the last remakes Corky and I mailed back to the U.S. from Japan, only risking that when it became clear there wasn't room to carry her on the plane. She made the trip safely, and we're looking forward to the day Corky can bring her in person to a vintage custom event!"

GOLDEN MALICIOUS

Smutty palomino Quarter Horse mare, CM by Sarah King in 1991

1990s Overall Champion Color

Congratulations to Golden Malicious, owned by Sarah Minkiewicz-Breunig! (Read more about this sharp mare in the Spring 2017 issue's Victory Lap!)

SHIRAMBA KAMUI

Wild bay Morab gelding, CM by Sarah Minkiewicz(-Breunig) in 1997

1990s Overall Champion Workmanship

Ardith Carlton writes, "Am excited Shiramba Kamui earned a second Victory Lap, after getting to be in the Spring 2019 issue!

"Between then and now, this remade Hagen-Renaker large Zara (am still not sure how Sarah accomplished that!) journeyed from the other side of the world, to get from Japan to Michigan. Sent by express EMS class, our boxes of remakes spent 3 to 5 days enroute, but it's always a risky trip. Lisa Shepard kindly took all the packages in, and we had a 99% great weekend at her place, unwrapping and repacking the horses for a brief stay in storage, when Corky and I got back to the U.S. last month.

"The other 1% was tearful times, when casualties emerged despite our best precautions. It only happened to a few, thank goodness, and Dr. Lisa brought them right into her loving care. That was really comforting.

"Shiramba Kamui had travelled by himself in his foam rubber-filled 'box stall' that kept him safe in Japan's monster 9.1 earthquake--but given the scattered damage to others, I was hesitant to open it. So Corky lifted him out...and yeah, I've just been trying to scare you; he came through perfectly fine! Whew!

"That relief is tough to top, but for him to safely come home to this VCMEC honor is such a great feeling! Thanks so much!"

SEONEE ELEGY

Dove grulla blanket Appaloosa mare, CM by Lisa Rivera (Shepard) in 1990

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Breed

Ardith Carlton writes, "Wowee, 'Ellie' gets a second Victory Lap! Thank you! My favorite memories about her are in the Spring 2019 issue, but I haven't mentioned yet how the Seonee part of her name came about.

"Rudyard Kipling's Jungle Books are a long-time favorite of mine. Back in 1986, one of my first CM horses was a leopard App stallion by Julie Froelich I named Akela Irongear, after Akela, leader of the Seonee wolf pack, in the Kipling stories.

"Several 'so-and-so-Irongear' model Appaloosas followed, kin to Akela Irongear. I saved the name Seonee Irongear for the ultimate App mare. ...and finally, there she was, leaping off a 1990 saleslist from Lisa Rivera! It was such a thrill to get her!

"Except she didn't want to be Seonee Irongear. She was Seonee Elegy, thank you, the first of the Seonee line. You just don't argue with a mare like her, not even over a misspelling. ;^) And ever since, my CM Apps have tended to be an Irongear if male, or a Seonee if female. Another trivia fact for the day!"

ASUKA RYO

Chestnut Arabian stallion, CM by Tom Bainbridge in 1991

1990s Overall Reserve Champion Color

Ardith Carlton writes, "There's quite a story behind this towering Hagen-Renaker Nataf repainted by Tom Bainbridge... so be sure to check out his Victory Lap in the Spring 2017 issue, available to see free at <http://www.vcmec.com/vcmec-model-horse-re-view-issues.html>!

"Not mentioned there was the fact that the late Karen Grimm of Black Horse Ranch played an indirect part in my being able to get Asuke Ryo. At this writing, the sale of the last of Karen's vast collection is just a few days away [on October 5]--and that reminded me how Karen made one of my dreams come true.

"In the late '80s, Black Horse Ranch acquired Hagen-Renaker's remaining stock of horses and other animals, DW and up. My dream was to someday own an H-R Nataf, but that was financially far beyond anything I could do at that time! I needed an H-R DW Steer to team with my Classic-sized Carol Williams CM cutting mare The African Sun [who had a Victory Lap in Spring 2018], though, so I called Black Horse Ranch in search of one.

"By the call's end, Karen Grimm had sold me not only both a matte and glossy DW Steer, but also factory seconds of both a matte and glossy H-R Nataf, on a super-generous time-payment plan!

"In the Spring 2017 Victory Lap, I wrote that Tom sold me Asuka Ryo for a 'bargain price.' That price was an even trade for my matte H-R Nataf, who had come my way through Karen's kindness. I'll always be grateful to both Tom and Karen!"
