📍 Lima, Peru

DAY 2: October 21

Welcome to Lima

Please Note: Breakfast is included daily at your hotel.

Morning orientation and welcome briefing. All travelers will gather this morning with your national guide and receive further information on the program and today's activities.

Later today, all travelers will take a curator-guided tour of the unique Larco Museum. Gain insight into 3,000 years of Peru's cultural history viewing a vast array of artifacts that comprise the largest private collection of pre-Columbian art in the world. Learn more about the lives of the people who created the beautiful archaeological objects displayed.

Enjoy a delicious lunch onsite at the elegant Café del Museo.

Enjoy some free time late this afternoon before a welcome dinner at a local restaurant.

Overnight: Crowne Plaza Lima (or similar)

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Lima, Peru

DAY 3: October 22

Professional Interaction

Professional members of the program will interact with their counterparts this morning and afternoon for substantive meetings at local law firms, law schools, and/or with professional representatives in the legal field.

Journey Mission: The primary goal is to learn about the legal systems, methods of legal education, culture and history of Peru, primarily through lectures and interactions with lawyers and other professionals, judges, and academics. Discussions will focus on access to justice for indigents, and how the military legal system operates to support the human rights of the people.

Guest program

Today accompanying guests will explore Peru's capital, a rich kaleidoscope of colonial architecture, revered pre-Columbian sites, charming residential areas, and vibrant shopping districts perched over the blue Pacific. See the 16th century Plaza Mayor (main square) still graced by the government palace, city hall and a cathedral. Continue on to see the San Francisco Convent, built in the 17th century, and its "catacombs" that functioned as an ancient underground cemetery. The tour continues along the city's lovely Pacific coast through the enchanting neighborhoods of San Isidro, Miraflores and Larco Mar. Discover colonial art in the Barbosa-Stern Collection. Since 1966, Eduardo Barbosa and his wife Silvia Stern have collected an impressive compilation of Spanish colonial art.

Lunch will be provided this afternoon with dinner by individual arrangement (own expense).

Overnight: Crowne Plaza Lima (or similar)

Included meals: Breakfast & Lunch

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 5: October 24

Professional Program

Today you will continue your professional program highlighted by interaction with your professional counterparts. Continue discussions of mutual interest including challenges and opportunities for the rule of law, and for economic and political progress more generally, in the country.

Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant.

Guest program

Guests will gain a unique insight into Peru's food and culture late this morning through the use of regional products like quinoa, yellow peppers, and trout. Your class starts with a short tour of the traditional San Pedro market before heading to the 11th floor Rooftop Kitchen facility, offering breathtaking views of the city. The class consists of the preparation of an appetizer and main course which you will get to enjoy afterwards. Enjoy some time to explore on your own later this afternoon or just enjoy the amenities of your lovely local hotel.

Dinner will be provided at a local restaurant.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco (or similar)

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 4: October 23

Fly to Cusco

Immediately after breakfast, depart the hotel for your flight to Cusco. Elevated approximately 11,100 feet above sea level, Cusco is a World Heritage Site and the former capital of the Inca Empire.

Altitude Sickness - We recommend you check with your personal physician to see if an altitude sickness medication is right for you. Those who live at sea level or a lower elevation should pay particular attention.

Aranwa Cusco Boutique Hotel is the essence of luxury and comfort in the heart of the Inca city. Built in a colonial mansion of the XVI century, it displays several paintings of the Cuzco school, colonial sculptures and carvings that transport us to the greatness of the time. The elegant rooms are equipped with intelligent oxygen system and heating floor in the bathrooms for a great stay.

Lunch and dinner will be provided at a local restaurant with some free time to relax and acclimate to the altitude.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco (or similar)

Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Sacred Valley, Peru

DAY 6: October 25

Sacred Valley Exploration

After breakfast, head to the Sacred Valley via bus (1.5-hour drive). First stop is the Písaq Market before heading on to visit a rural community school and village. Donations for the school children are of course welcome. Clothes to keep them warm, shoes, and medicines are hard to come by here. In this area the cold is intense, and kids don't always have proper clothes to wear during the winter. Your support will be appreciated!

Lunch will be provided at Huayocari Restaurant this afternoon. After lunch, the group will visit the Inca Fortress of Ollantaytambo. Here you will find the best surviving example of Inca town planning - many of the building foundations in old town were built by the Inca, and the majority of the Inca canchas, or blocks, are still intact today.

Later today take the Vistadome train to Machu Picchu, saying farewell to the Sacred Valley.

Sumaq Machu Picchu Hotel is a signature luxury property with an unequalled location at the foot of the historic sanctuary of Machu Picchu. The hotel has five-star service, authentic Peruvian cuisine and all the amenities of a luxury five-star property including free Wi-Fi, minibar, hair dryers, blackout drapes and soundproofed rooms. Time permitting, you might try out their incredible spa services including hot stone massage, reflexology and hydrotherapy.

Dinner will be provided this evening at a nearby restaurant.

Overnight: Sumaq Deluxe Hotel (or similar)
Included meals: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 7: October 26

Explore Machu Picchu

Please note: Today's itinerary includes moderate physical activity with some low-difficulty hiking.

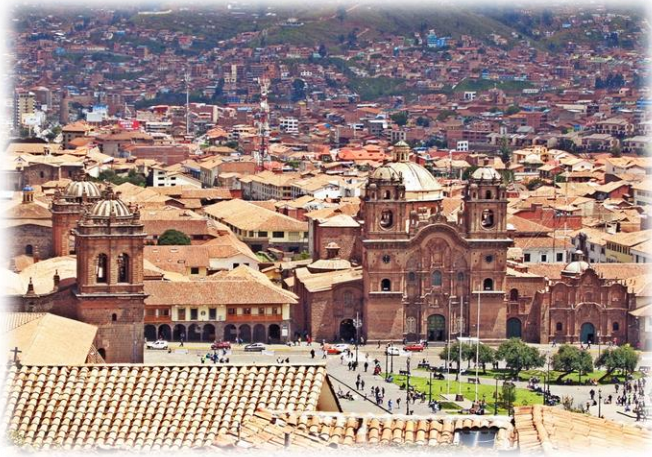

After breakfast make your way to the Machu Picchu site for your privately-guided tour of the archaeological ruins of Machu Picchu.

Known as one of the most beautiful and enigmatic ancient sites in the world, the Andean mountaintop was used by the Inca people as the foundation of hundreds of stone structures, with construction starting in the early 1400s.

Explore the terraces, corridors, temples, the solar clock (Intihuatana), and other sacred places within the citadel. Lunch will be provided at the Sanctuary Lodge, before you return to the train station for your journey back to Cusco. Meal and beverage services are available on the train for your convenience.

Check back into your local hotel where a late dinner is on your own arrangement this evening.

Overnight: Aranwa Cusco (or similar)
Included meals: Breakfast & Lunch

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 9: October 28

Depart

Depart for home today (via Lima) with arrival later this morning in Miami.

Included meals: Breakfast

📍 Cusco, Peru

DAY 8: October 27

Cultural Program

Today the group will explore the cobbled streets and religious splendors of Cusco. Visit the Cathedral of Cusco, considered one of the most beautiful Spanish colonial churches in the Americas, and explore a vast array of colonial art on display.

Continue to Qorikancha (Coricancha), the Incan Temple of the Sun, and the main temple of the Incan empire. Built and rebuilt with incredible riches, including walls and floors of gold, little of the original temple remains. The Church of Santo Domingo was built onsite using Coricancha's foundations and some of its remaining stone walls, creating a fascinating mix of Incan and colonial architecture.

After some time for lunch on your own, enjoy an informative history-themed lecture about the Rise and Fall of the Inca Empire.

Enjoy some free time to explore independently this afternoon. Your fantastically located hotel will provide an opportunity to explore on foot.

Say goodbye as you reflect and share memories over a farewell dinner at the Map Café this evening.
