May 2014 News

On our early morning walks along the white waters rushing down Looney Creek reminds me of Father's unceasing blessings. His blessings continue to flow...our cup is full and we drink from the saucer! We are grateful to have you praying for us, our families, and the ministries in which God has us working. Please do not ever grow faint in praying for others...it is our responsibly.

A missionary's Lynch motto is Flynych (flexible + Lynch)

The week of May 4th Robertson Co. Tennessee BA missionaries had a great week working with the Tri-City ministries. At FCM they shared God's Bible stories, gave free haircuts, and the nurses educated the people with diet issues and other medical needs. We enjoyed the story telling it shown how it pertains to us today. And the singing from the local folks lead up to a worship/banquet time that night with the local missionaries. It began with a baptism in the creek behind 180, praise and prayer time before a steak dinner with all the trimmings. It is a reminder; our time on Earth is a warm-up for our home in Heaven.

At the last Bible fellowship of the day began with: broken hearts crying, confessing, and requesting prayers for hurting and lost family members. The place was filled with God's Holy Spirit.

TN missionary's testimony of the Holy Spirit's work at FCM: It was such a great honor and blessing to work and minister with you. To see ministry that is so pure and honest, personally touching the lives of those who pass by you. It makes me think of Phillip and the Eunuch. As you walk out your day, you minister to those you come alongside, right where they are. Your heart for those you serve is so evident.

Another missionary said, "Thank you so much for sharing with us! It was a delight to meet you and work alongside you! You have officially been added to our family prayer bowl. Each night at dinner, we have a bowl that we draw names from and each one of us (my wife, two daughters, and I) pray for those individually. Many times we don't know the specific need, but it has been a blessing to us and our daughters." What a great idea for a family to pray together!

For the last decade Kershaw BA, Camden, SC has brought senior missionaries to the Tri- City area. Each year 1st time missionaries come along and represent the Lord throughout the community. They served in different ways as they assisted in homes, clothes, food, and spiritual ministries.

Cumberland Missionary BC, KY had great fellowship with Line Fork House of Prayer Church family on Saturday the 17th. The volunteers met in the church parking lot ready to work with saws, hammers, and a servant's heart. We met new brothers and sisters in Christ at Line Fork. We not only built half the floor as we expected to do...BUT the LORD blessed, they delivered all the lumber and the entire floor was built on the 24'x32' foundation. Also, in half the time plus we had lunch. God brought the right brothers and sisters together to do this project. Each person shared their skills/gift. PTL!

Missionary Festus Stroud of SC did an awesome drywall job at the mission house and Agape house: he mudded walls and texture strayed a ceiling and walls. We got a lot of the construction debris out of Agape. The marvelous part of his faithfulness was...he did the work a day before knee surgery. Please pray as he goes through therapy.

Missionary Linda Alford arrived Saturday from Northern Kentucky; she brought in some monthly supplies. She is a great encourager and supporter! Please pray for her! In the mountains you will find un-level ground...we were doing some yard work: landscaping, mowing lawns, and weed eating. When Linda slipped into a trench and badly twisted an ankle. Thanks for your prayers.

A lady came to Bible fellowship at 10:00 today unexpected...she prayed at home before she came about a big decision to be made and the Lord guided her to FCM. She testified that during the Bible time Robin shared the Holy Spirit answered her prayer. We all praised our Lord for His timely answer.
