

MAGGIE MCGOWAN

Instructor • Company Co-Director
Company Choreographer & Coach

Maggie has been dancing since the age of three. She has trained in all styles of dance including ballet, pointe, jazz, tap, hip hop, lyrical, contemporary, and modern. She danced competitively for many years and was also part of the dance team and hip hop team at Santa Susana Performing Arts High School. She continued with dance throughout college receiving her AA in dance from Moorpark College, and ultimately graduating with high honors and a BA in dance from UC Santa Barbara.

Maggie has worked professionally as a contestant on the dance competition show Dance Revolution and as a dancer in the movie High School Musical 2.

Maggie currently teaches a variety of classes at Aspire, and is a co-director and choreographer for the Aspire Dance Company. Her choreography has won multiple regional and national awards! Maggie is also the Dance Director at La Reina High School and Middle School. She is currently in her 5th year as the head coach and choreographer of the Varsity Dance Team.

Maggie's true passion has always been dance. From performing to teaching and choreographing, she loves it all. She is thankful to be able to share her love for dance with the wonderful Aspire Dance Family.
