

LEONARD-MOBLEY SMALL FARMS FUND
PRESENTS THE 5TH ANNUAL

Dinner in the Meadow

A FARM-TO-TABLE FEAST TO BENEFIT SMALL FARMS

AT MEADOW LANE FARM
571 LEONARD FARM RD · LOUISBURG, NORTH CAROLINA

SEPTEMBER 9 2018 5:30 TO 8:30

Dear Leonard-Mobley Small Farms Fund Supporter,

Dinner in the Meadow is an annual event to raise money for the nonprofit Leonard-Mobley Small Farms Fund (LMSFF). Through this annual fundraiser, LMSFF is able to award grants to small farms, encouraging and supporting their growth. For three consecutive years, monies raised at Dinner in the Meadow by LMSFF have allowed farmers to invest in the tools they need to grow their businesses, be it new equipment, adding new and different products, continuing education, or growing their electronic footprint. These grants are allowing them access to opportunities for growth and resources that they might not otherwise see.

This year we celebrate our fifth year of Dinner in the Meadow. This ticketed event showcases local food products, and is prepared by celebrated local chefs, and features North Carolina products for auction. Although ticket sales and auction items contribute to our efforts, we still need the support of donors if we want to expand our efforts. Your sponsorship of Dinner in the Meadow can help us do that. All sponsorship proceeds will go directly to the support of Dinner in the Meadow, LMSFF, and its grants.

Where our food comes from is important, and farming impacts everyone. We feel that by helping the small, local farmer, we can make a direct impact in their efforts, and in return, in the community they serve. We hope you will support our efforts and join us in this celebration!
