

RHR Patch/Vest Policies

The vest is an expression of self, bearing witness to the experiences and adventures of a singular rider; also a common expression of a group bonded by motorcycles. The motorcycle vest is without a doubt one of the most enduring icons in motorcycle history.

- 1) No RHR patch can be worn on any vest with vulgar or inappropriate patches.
- 2) When a large RHR Logo Back Patch is placed on a vest it will be considered a "Club Vest". Policies for a "Club Vest" are as follows:

- A) Any patch placed on a "RHR Club Vest" must be on the "RHR Approved Patch List".
- B) The large RHR Logo Patch shown above is an approved patch. It must be placed on the upper back of the vest.
- C) No other patch may be placed over or besides the large RHR Logo Patch on the back of the vest.
- D) Any other RHR Approved Patch may be placed below the large RHR Logo Patch on the back of the vest. The top of any other patch on the back of the vest cannot be any higher than the bottom of the large RHR Logo Patch, and no closer than 1" to the large RHR Logo Patch.
