

Albert E. Koglin, 82, of Bath and formerly of Port Hope, passed away on Thursday Sept. 20, 2012, at home.

He was born June 26, 1930, in Port Hope to the late Frank E. and Mae E. (Merchant) Koglin. He married Florence Werner on Nov. 14, 1953. She passed away on April 22, 1999.

He attended Port Hope High School and served his country honorably in the U. S. Army during the Korean War.

Albert enjoyed his family, hunting, fishing, playing cards, woodworking and gardening. He retired from the maintenance department at Michigan State University. He was also a member and past commander of the VFW in Bath.

He is survived by his daughter, Kerri and significant other Mike Damon; granddaughter, Erica (Kenneth) Hart; great-granddaughters, Christina and Kayee Hart all of East Lansing; brothers, Frank H. Koglin of Lake Havasu City, Ariz., and Fred (Bernice) Koglin of Port Hope; sisters, Lena Sengstock of Port Hope, Dora (Delbert) Collison of Port Hope, Marlene Martinez of Harbor Beach and Gloria Western of Ubyly; also several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Florence; parents; sister, Rosena Kelley; brother, Alfred; sister-in-law, Clara Koglin; and brother-in-laws, Stuart Kelley, Arthur Sengstock, Herman Pleiness, Russell Nowiski, Julian Martinez and Charles Western.

A memorial service was conducted on Sept. 24, 2012, at the Gorsline-Runciman Funeral Home in DeWitt, with Pastor Wesley Emerson officiating.