

Part Two~Flow Cycle

Rachael Martin 10,20,2015

Lord, I'm here today and I'd like to hear from You. I'd like to know Your heart for me. I'd like to hear Your voice and seek Your face for what You would have for me and what You would have me to do today. I want to be faithful with what You have given me and I want to give You the first parts of me. I choose to walk with You today – anytime You want to use me and everywhere You choose to use me, I am Yours. I wait for You Lord – Holy Spirit take over.

This is the prayer that we finished our week out with last week and it's what I've been praying everyday since. I've been waiting on the Lord and I'd like to share with you a little of what He has shown me so far. ☺

In praying this each day, one thing I've noticed is that slowly... my focus has come off of me and started to turn outward towards others and towards their needs. Not that I'm always consumed with myself but my intercessory button was pushed and I started to become more alert to others needs more quickly.

Proverbs 18:1 – A man who isolates himself seeks his own desire; He rages against all wise judgment.

Thank You Jesus... part of this prayer was that I chose for Him to use me anytime and everywhere and prayer is an anytime – everywhere tool that digs up blessings! It also allows for a constant flow where we won't look back and won't get spiritual whiplash because we are on and off again with the Lord.

As well, the Lord showed me that isolation can become a weapon for the enemy if we aren't careful to use our alone time wisely and make it count. In the very beginning Genesis 2:18 – “God says that it's not good that man is alone...” so there are things that we cannot do or should not do on our own. So I have news for you – if you are going to be available to the Lord anytime and everywhere you go, then you will not be left alone to handle His business. He said it wasn't good so be mindful and prayerful about this area in your life.

What the Lord showed me about the alone times is that the mind begins to churn and we begin to think about things – and as woman our minds just tend to go and go! We can get to the point where we are so bombarded with our thoughts that the enemy has enough time to come in and aggravate another area that we haven't been watching.

How many of us have ever been on the verge of losing it or giving into temptation or getting to a point of desperate and all of a sudden a friend calls or texts? God's plan is 1st of all for fellowship with Him and once we have had fellowship with Him, we can start to reach out to others, that the body of Christ would be His love extended – a power cord, a power surger where God's love is on FLOW cycle – throughout each of our lives that we plug in and out of each others lives without losing our connection with the Lord – each joint supplying.

A friend of mine reminded me that praying in the spirit is a critical part of our prayer life and with that I'd like to close repeating the prayer at the beginning but adding to it a time of praying in the spirit where the flow of His power starts to connect at a greater level. Go ahead jump start your spirit man! We need to wax hot for the Lord – remain faithful and He will start to show You great mysteries. So here it is – Part Two – let's flow!

1 Corinthians 14:2 – For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries.
