Comfort, in Style

The Craftsman Collection— Mission Revival Style Furniture

It all began with the Spanish Roman Catholic Monks. As they swept across Southwest America, planting missions among the Native Americans, they built their own furniture out of necessity. It was ruggedly simple, and strictly functional.

In the 1920's, Gustav Stickley, a German American designer, and others refined and popularized Mission Furniture. Today, it has become a furniture of choice among contemporary interior designers.

Tastefully simple with a trace of adventure, mission furniture represents a truly American blend of cultures.

The Craftsman Collection brings to you mission furniture—historic, refined, celebrated, and the most comfortable of its kind!

Quartersawn White Oak

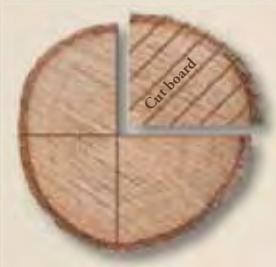

What is Quartersawn?

Quartersawn wood can be recognized by its unique ray flake grain. To create quartersawn wood, the log is first quartered and then cut perpendicular to the growth rings. This results in a very straight, fine-grained surface with interesting ray flakes.

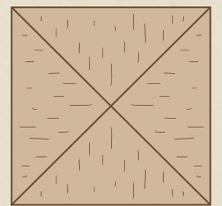

Quartersawn furniture was quite common years ago when craftsmen were primarily concerned about quality and durability. We offer you the same beauty, durability, and distinction today.

To make the most of that distinction, we use quad-linear posts for the legs of our upholstered mission furniture.

Usually, a leg post is created from a 3"x3" board. But with that approach, only two sides of the leg display the uniqueness of the ray flake grain. To overcome this obstacle, we cut four triangular pieces from our quartersawn wood, then glue them together, producing a leg of incredible strength, but most importantly, a leg that displays the beauty of the ray flake grain on all four sides.
