

Ananda Festival is looking for yoga teachers, musicians, performers + presenters to educate + involve our festival goers in physical + spiritual well-being, holistic + integrative healing.

Please submit your request to anandafestival@gmail.com

- Include a headshot, bio, + links to social media + website.
- Provide a one paragraph description of your presentation, musical style, or yoga class.
- Your name and title as it will appear on marketing material
- Preference of day and time you'd like to present

Gates for presenters, musicians, + teachers open Thursday 8/15 at 4:00 pm + close Monday 8/18 at 10:00 am. The festival is open to the public Friday 2:00 pm - Sunday 2:00 pm. Festival begins Friday at 4:00 pm. Accommodations are on-site open-field camping. The nearest hotels are in Petoskey, MI (20 mi), nearest convenience store is in Wolverine (9 mi).

Musicians are responsible for bringing their own speakers, mics, and any other equipment, a sound technician will be provided. A bluetooth speaker will be available in the Yoga Tent for teachers.

Since this is our first year of Ananda Festival, please consider offering your time and talents as a form of Karma Yoga, or selfless service. Your meaningful participation will help pave the way for many more years of Ananda Festival. Teachers and performers will receive two complimentary tickets to the festival. If monetary reimbursement is desired to cover travel costs, please include a requested stipend amount. We will do our best to accommodate these requests when the festival is over.

For comments, questions, or concerns, contact Tiffany Lenau (231) 838-8992, or anandafestival@gmail.com