MARCH 2018 NEWSLETTER

To Be A Real Leprechaun

To be a real leprechaun,
and have a pot of gold.
To be able to enjoy the music,
and not be left out in the cold.
Their life of enjoyment,
can be seen in their face.
To be a living leprechaun,
is something I can embrace.
Their little deeds of mischief,
and the matching of their wit.
And a toast of Irish whiskey,
to make this seem legit.
I'd love to be a leprechaun,
So life can be a treasure.
I know that I would love this,
beyond any kind of measure.
Dancing in the moonlight,
and hiding in the flowers.
The weeks are so carefree,
that days seem like hours.

From a thousand shades of green,
that's called the emerald isle.
I know the life of merrymen,
is really quite worthwhile.
To be a living leprechaun,
is something of what I dream.

 For if I really was one,
I would be held in high esteem.

Everyone is Irish on St. Patty's Day!

TONY'S BLOG

The month of March. Winter is almost over and soon it will be the beginning of Spring. For many of us, it is also lent, a time when we need to fast and maybe give something up. For me it is also the month that I was born many years ago on March 31st. recently I was complaining to my doctor about getting old and he said to me that we are actually 20 years younger than our grandparents were. I agreed because I do feel and act 20 years younger. To all the other March birthdays, have a happy birthday and this year you should love and enjoy. PS. I am not even thinking about slowing down or retiring, I am having to much fun!

ONCE ON THIS ISLAND
Monday, March 12, 2018 - Lv: 5:45 PM

COST $123

The vibrant Broadway revival of Ahrens and Flaherty's musical, bursting with Caribbean colors, rhythm and dance. This is the sweeping theatrical power of Once On This Island—the universal tale of Ti Moune, a fearless peasant girl in search of her place in the world, and ready to risk it all for love. Guided by the mighty island gods (played by Tony Award winner Lea Salonga, Alex Newell, Merle Dandridge, and Quentin Earl Darrington), Ti Moune sets out on a remarkable journey to reunite with the man who has captured her heart. The groundbreaking vision of Tony Award-nominated director Michael Arden and acclaimed choreographer Camille A. Brown conjures up “a place where magic is possible and beauty is apparent for all to see!”

CAROUSEL

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORY
Leonard Bernstein - The Power of Music, 100 Years, Guided Tour w/ Lunch at The Pub
Saturday, April 28, 2018 - Lv: 9:15 AM

COST: $93

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF AMERICAN JEWISH HISTORY

Celebrate the centennial birthday of one of the 20th century's most influential cultural figures, who personified classical music and produced a rich repertoire of original compositions for orchestra and the theater. Audiences may be familiar with many of Bernstein's works, notably West Side Story, but not necessarily how he grappled with his own religious, political, and sexual identity, or how he responded to the political and social crises of his day. Visitors will find an individual who expressed the restlessness, anxiety, fear, and hope of an American Jew living through World War II and the Holocaust, Vietnam, and turbulent social change – what Bernstein referred to as his "search for a solution to the 20th-century crisis of faith." The exhibition will feature one-of-a-kind historic artifacts, all brought to life through immersive film, sound installations, and interactive media. After the museum, we will have a wonderful lunch at The Pub. Where you will have a variety of choices.
