LUKE DUNNING & TS FAMOUSLY SHAKEN won the Double Crown Championship determined by the fastest average of the 1st leg, The Classic Equine and the 2nd leg, The Greg Olson Memorial Futurities.

GREG OLSON...

In the first round I just tried to ride Talie stride for stride and not get too far ahead or behind her. I knew she was running and working hard and the clock showed it. In the second round I just went into the arena with the goal to be grateful for Talie and try to make a consistent run. She worked well and placed in the second round. I did not really change anything in my riding between the Classic and the Greg. My plan was to ride the filly with feel and see where the chips fell. I had no idea we were in the running for the double crown until they told me the filly won it. Not sure on the total amount won, but it was a pretty good weekend. I also placed 5th in the derby on Tres Of Fame with a 17.10.

HISTORY & TRAINING...

TS Famously Shaken is sired by Frenchmans Shake Em and out of Fame For Pamela by Dash Ta Fame. Talie was bred by Treasure State Quarter Horses, Todd and Una Ford, out of Montana. She was bought through their sale by Natalie Leske of Arizona. Natalie did all of the training on her including starting her as a 2 year old.

TRAINING TIPS...

My wife and I focus a lot on body control, especially the rib cage. We try pretty hard to build and maintain their confidence.

PICKING THE RIGHT PROSPECT...

It seems that if you stick with a recipe of buying and/or raising the best bloodlines you can afford, start with as correct of conformation as you can, and look for the trainable dispositions that want to try hard, your odds are going to be better. Disposition and try & grit seem to be getting a lot more important to me the longer I do this. What stood out about Talie was her confidence, try & her grittiness.

FAVORITE BITS...

Short shank Cervi, Dave Elliot C-bit, O/D ring snaffle

Favorite Saddle...

G Bar G Saddlery

Favorite pad...

5-Star with a Back On Track liner.

Therapies...

KEEPING YOUR HORSES FRESH AND PREPARED...

We tried to have Talie as rested as possible, as limber as possible, and confident in what her job was. Before leaving home we try to have the horses really fit with a lot of air. We try to focus on their body moving as evenly as possible with matching breath. Our goal is to always leave the futurity with a better horse than what we came with. So when you leave the house with that goal it keeps you focused on what is most important-your colts foundation.

LUKE DUNNING...

Luke grew up in Montana and graduated from the University of Montana with a business degree while working as a smoke jumper based out of Missoula. For the past twelve years he has worked for the city of Missoula's fire department and trained horses with his wife Heather and son Kade out of his Arlee horse training facility, except the few months in the winter where he is based out of Arizona.

THANK YOU...

I would like to thank Natalie Leske for trusting me with such a special filly. A big thank you to my sponsors G Bar G Saddlery and Performance Equine Specialists-you guys always go above and beyond for us. Personally, I would like to thank my wife along with Judy Myllymaki and Bo Hill for always helping me to be the best horseman that I can be.
