
SCHOLARS' SYMPOSIUM

IN CELEBRATION OF THE
250TH ANNIVERSARY
OF
CALIFORNIA'S FIRST MISSION

GENERAL INFORMATION

- WHAT: Scholars' Symposium
- WHEN: March 22-24, 2019
- WHERE: Mission San Diego de Alcalá
10818 San Diego Mission Road
San Diego, CA 92108-2429
- WHY: Marking the historic anniversary of Saint Junipero Serra's arrival in California 250 years ago, a distinguished panel of experts and scholars will visit Mission San Diego de Alcalá to participate in a three-day symposium. Scholars from throughout the United States will gather at the historic Mission, (designated a Basilica in 1976,) to share their knowledge and expertise about early California mission history and related subjects.
- DETAILS: The public is invited to hear from a group of California's most well-respected historians in a once-in-a-lifetime gathering to commemorate the founding of California's first mission church. Tickets for the three-day event are $120 and include Continental Breakfast and Lunch on March 22 and 23, and Dinner on Friday evening, March 22. Tickets for a Paella Dinner on March 23 are available at an additional cost of $45 per person. Tickets are limited and advance registration is advised. For additional information call (619) 283-7319 or visit the Mission website at: www.MissionSanDiego.org.
