To Whom It May Concern

I have known Michael Garb for four years. He attends our Shabbat morning service on many occasions and often volunteers to lead part or all of the service when our cantor is on vacation. Last year, when our Cantor had a month's medical leave, Michael stood in for him for the three Shabbat services when we had a bar mitzvah. Michael knows nusach and has a very smooth, soothing voice. He has also read torah for us on a number of occasions.

Michael is very personable, responsible and eager to be of assistance. I am certain he will carry out well whatever duties you wish him to undertake.
