

Stability

Rachael Martin, 1,31,2017

Circumstances that are beyond our control leave us to do things that sometimes we didn't know we could, whether bad or good.....and I believe part of it is that we have a need to want to be able to have a sense of control so that we don't appear koo-koo for lack of a better word. (loco for all my Spanish friends) 😊 ♥

Everywhere I look people are sad, concerned, mad, depressed, outraged, tormented, and even driven to advocacy for the state of the United States of America at this point in history we are writing the pages today for what the next generation (should the Lord tarry) will come to know.

Trusting in the Lord to be sovereign, I felt this word "stability" come up in my spirit. I know I don't have all the answers, I also know that what I see and hear in the mainstream media is continuing to be burdensome to my spirit. My response is tears and prayer. My response is still to have respect and respond in love and kindness the best way I know how and when I don't know what to say, to be okay with not knowing what to say and allow the Lord to speak to me.

I even said to myself.. okay... where did Jesus spend most of His time.... and how would that look today? I just want to encourage and remind people – constantly pointing back to scripture because I know it to be faithful – I know HIM to be faithful and unwavering. Today, I check my thoughts at the front gate and say – have at it Lord – arrange my thinking to something You are pleased with – please Lord – help my thoughts and ways to be Yours. Help me to be stable in the truth of Who You are and what You are capable of.

Psalm 62:2 - Truly he is my rock and my salvation; he is my fortress, I will never be shaken.

Psalm 20:7-8 - Some boast in chariots and some in horses, But we will boast in the name of the LORD, our God. They have bowed down and fallen, But we have risen and stood upright.

Proverbs 10:25 - When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more, But the righteous has an everlasting foundation.

1 Corinthians 15:58 - Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 3:8 - for now we really live, if you stand firm in the Lord.

Isaiah 26:3 - "The steadfast of mind You will keep in perfect peace, Because he trusts in You.
