

CLARENCE RICKENBACK

1910 - 1995

Clarence H. "Red" Rickenback, 85, a 41-year summer resident of Sand Point, passed away July 14 in the Netherlands. He was enroute to England to attend his grandson's wedding celebration. Mr. Rickenback died at St. Radboud Hospital in Nijmegen, Netherlands near Amsterdam from complications which were the result of an accidental fall down a flight of stairs.

Born in Detroit to Bertha and Joseph Rickenback, he graduated from Northwestern High School and the University of Detroit. Employed until the age of 73, he worked at Peninsular Grinding Wheel, Brass Craft Manufacturing and Southfield Machine Products as an accountant, office manager, and personnel director.

His affiliations included the Caseville Kawans Club, Caseville Eagles, the Sand Point Association and the Detroit Yacht Club. He was a member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

Mr. Rickenback was preceded in death by his wife of 58 years, Marjorie. He is survived by his daughters Lynn Raabe of Ann Arbor and Lonna Peine of Northville, and four grandchildren.

Cremation took place in the Netherlands and a memorial service is scheduled for 11 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 24 at Emmanuel Lutheran Church, 800 S. Military, Dearborn.

Memorial contributions may be sent to the American Diabetes Association, Suite 2255, 30000 Telegraph Rd. Bingham Farms, Mich. 48025-4532, or a charity of your choice.
