

FALSE HUMILITY

Rachael Martin 5.21.2015

I've been rolling this one around in my head for a couple of weeks and really wish that we could start a blog on it. I'm trying to figure out how to do that here on this devotion page, pray for us as we technically try to update our website and continue to bring fresh manna from heaven! I'm so grateful for our team!

I ran across this website looking up false humility:

<http://www.differentspirit.org/blog/false-humility/>

One thing he said was: “While someone is preoccupied with thoughts of self, they will never be free of self. While someone is preoccupied with their failings, they will never be free of self. While someone is impressed with their own achievements and talent, they will never be free of self.

We have all inherited a fallen nature. That great flaw alone ensures that we will never overcome self in our own strength. Self cannot cast out self. You will never speak humility into being. You will never grit your teeth and “make it happen”. Humility has to be worked into you. It is a work of the Spirit. God has to do for us what we are incapable of doing for ourselves.”

Now, Gary told me to leave it right here... and allow our readers to respond. I'm praying that this works and that you all can comment below.

The 2 part question is –

WHAT IS FALSE HUMILITY AND HOW DOES IT DIFFER FROM PRIDE?

After you respond (try to keep them short, if possible) then – I would like for you to turn it into a prayer for yourself and others. Have a great day pressing into the Word of God and praying for one another! We love y'all!
