

William Loining

1912 – 1999

William Loining, age 86 of Caseville, passed away Sunday, March 21 at Tendercare of Cass City.

He was born in Knife River, Minnesota on October 5, 1912, the son of the late Rasmus and Alma A. (Peterson) Loining. On September 14, 1940 he was united in marriage to Sara V. Soderstedt in Duluth, Minnesota. She survives him.

Mr. Loining attended Denfield High School in Duluth Minnesota. Approximately 10 years following his graduation, he joined and served with the U.S. Navy SeaBees in Pearl Harbor, Hawaii during World War II. He then worked for Sears Roebuck & Company, retiring in 1975 as the carpet department manager. Mr. and Mrs. Loining moved to Caseville 14 years ago where Mr. Loining attended the Caseville United Methodist Church.

His survivors include his wife, Sara; a daughter, Connie (Michael) Power of Caseville; a son, Robert (Sherry) Loining of Colorado Springs, Colorado; two granddaughters, Terri (Jeff) Wiechert of Pigeon and Jodi (Todd) Smith of Caseville; and a great-grandson, Aaron Smith. He was preceded in death by three sisters, Lillian L. Keiser, Dorothy Powell, and Marie Lockway; and three brothers, Carl, Thomas, and Randolph.

Funeral Services will be conducted at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, April 9 from the Meyersieck-Bussema Funeral Home, Pigeon, with Rev. Michael Quayle, pastor of Caseville United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Caseville Township Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the American Heart Association, the American Lung Association, or the Alzheimer's Association.
