“Who Has the Harder Task?”

This time of year in the Church is often filled with many thoughts of Ordinations and Installations. Many pastors and congregations are reminded of the vows made by both pastors and congregations, not only to God, but also to each other. After hearing many Bible verses that expound on the Office of the Holy Ministry, the Pastor is questioned:

P Dear brother in Christ, the Lord grant that you receive and keep these words in your heart so that you may be strengthened and encouraged in your labors. God gathers His Church by and around His Holy Gospel and thereby also grants it growth and increase according to His good pleasure. That this may be done, He has established the Office of the Holy Ministry into which you have been called by the Church and are now to be ordained and consecrated by prayer and the laying on of hands.

In the presence of this congregation and before our Lord God to whom you must give an account now and at the Last Day, I now ask you:

Do you acknowledge that the Lord has called you through His Church into the ministry of Word and Sacrament?

R I do.

P Do you believe and confess the canonical books of the Old and New Testaments to be the inspired Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice?

R Yes, I believe and confess the canonical Scriptures to be the inspired Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice.

P Do you believe and confess the three Ecumenical Creeds, namely the Apostles', the Nicene, and the Athanasian Creeds, as faithful testimonies to the truth of the Holy Scriptures, and do you reject all the errors which they condemn?

R Yes, I believe and confess the three Ecumenical Creeds because they are in accord with the Word of God. I also reject all the errors they condemn.

P Do you confess the Unaltered Augsburg Confession to be a true exposition of Holy Scripture and a correct exhibition of the doctrine of the Evangelical Lutheran Church? And do you confess that the Apology of the Augsburg Confession, the Small and Large Catechisms of Martin Luther, the Smalcald Articles, the Treatise on the Power and Primacy of the Pope, and the Formula of Concord—as these are contained in the Book of Concord—are also in agreement with this one scriptural faith?

R Yes, I make these Confessions my own because they are in accord with the Word of God.

P Do you promise that you will perform the duties of your office in accordance with these Confessions, and that all your preaching and teaching and your administration of the Sacraments will be in conformity with Holy Scripture and with these Confessions?

R Yes, I promise, with the help of God.

P Will you faithfully instruct both young and old in the chief articles of Christian doctrine, will you forgive the sins of those who repent, and will you promise never to divulge the sins confessed to you? Will you minister faithfully to the sick and dying, and will you demonstrate to the Church a constant and ready ministry centered in the Gospel? Will you admonish and encourage the people to a lively confidence in Christ and in holy living?

R Yes, I will, with the help of God.

P Finally, will you honor and adorn the Office of the Holy Ministry with a holy life? Will you be diligent in the study of Holy Scripture and the Confessions? And will you be constant in prayer for those under your pastoral care?

R I will, the Lord helping me through the power and grace of His Holy Spirit.

After these promises by the Pastor, the questions now turn to the Congregation:

P Beloved in the Lord, Holy Scripture says, “Obey your leaders and submit to their authority. They keep watch over you as men who must give an account. Obey them so that their work will be a joy, not a burden, for that would be of no advantage to you.”

Will you, the faithful, according to the Church’s public confession, and speaking for the whole Church, receive [name] as a servant of Christ and minister of Word and Sacrament? If so, then answer: We will.

C We will.

P Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, [name] has been called to be (a) pastor of [name of congregation(s)]. I ask you now, in the presence of God: Will you receive him, show him that love, honor, and obedience in the Lord that you owe to the shepherd and teacher placed over you by your Lord Jesus Christ, and will you support him by your gifts and fervent prayer? If so, then answer: We will, with the help of God.

C We will, with the help of God.

P Will you honor and uphold your pastor as he serves Christ in all his God-pleasing responsibilities? Will you aid him as he cares for his family? Will you be diligent to “put the best construction on everything,” recognizing that “love covers a multitude of sins”? If so, then answer: We will, with the help of God.

C We will, with the help of God.

So who has the more difficult task? The Augsburg Confession rightly summarizes and confesses these two wonderful complementary realities. *First, "It is also taught among us that we cannot obtain forgiveness of sin and righteousness before God by our own merits, works, or satisfactions, but that we receive forgiveness of sin and become righteous before God by grace, for Christ's sake, through faith, when we believe that Christ suffered for us and that for his sake our sin is forgiven and righteousness and eternal life are given to us."*¹

Second, *"To obtain such faith God instituted the office of the ministry, that is, provided the Gospel and the sacraments. Through these, as through means, he gives the Holy Spirit, who works faith, when and where he pleases, in those who hear the Gospel. And the Gospel teaches that we have a gracious God, not by our own merits but by the merit of Christ, when we believe this."*²

When you truly sit down and reflect on these truths, I don't know who has the harder task. Pastors are charged with the task of preaching Christ crucified, which is a stumbling block to Jews and folly to Gentiles. It is a message that goes against reason. For us Americans, we place a high value on education, reason, disputing, debating, thought, logic, and feelings. Our sinful nature wants nothing to do with God. It enjoys the flesh too much. It would rather make its own God. It is much easier to serve a God of my own design. I can do what I want, when I want, with no repercussions. I can dictate right and wrong, and because it is my choice, I can determine when I have been bad or good, so be good for goodness sake. I can build myself up in my own image, and then approach God with my own justification, my own feeling of being good, right, and salutary.

This is how the sinful nature lives, and pastors stand in the Office of the Ministry which is to be solely concerned with preaching Christ and Him crucified. A very simple and basic question arises at this point, "If I can justify myself, if I can determine right and wrong, then why was Christ crucified?" Here is where the task is hard. Pastors are to preach the reality of sin and grace, law and gospel to God's people. They are to proclaim a message to sinful people, whom, because of sin, don't want to hear it. They stand in the Office that distributes God's gifts to men; the Office that teaches, proclaims, offers and gives the foolishness of God that is wiser than men, and the weakness of God that is stronger than men.

As I said before, I don't know who has the harder task. Congregations see before them a sinful man. While this man stands in the Office of the Ministry, he still remains just a man. It will be easy to see his faults. It will be really easy to see his sins. He will stand with you and confess to be a poor, miserable sinner, one who is by nature sinful and unclean. He will fail many times. He will not always love God with his whole mind, heart, soul, and strength. He certainly will not always love his neighbor as much as he loves himself. He will need the same forgiveness, the same Jesus, the same gifts of God, as you.

1 Augsburg Confession IV

2 Augsburg Confession V

You will see him as a man, and God calls you to look past the messenger, to the gifts themselves. Jesus is the Good Shepherd. Jesus is the One who laid down His life for you, His sheep. There are times when you will want to see pastors as hired hands who care nothing for the sheep. As God's children, we walk by faith and not by sight. Faith will show you that while, your pastor is a pitiful sinner, and he stands in good company. Christ died for sinners, and the Office in which your Pastor stands gives Jesus through the very means that God Himself has established. While your pastor is a sinner, God has placed him here as one who is charged with preaching the word and administering the sacraments. He is one who dispenses not his own gifts, but cares for Christ's sheep and dispenses the very gifts of God.

So each of you, Pastor and people, have difficult tasks. I am not going to put any Vegas odds on which one is more difficult. I'm sure the brother pastors have an opinion on this matter, and I would guess that it would differ from many sitting in the pews. We are all tasked with various vocations, and just what is the point of all of this?

The point is very clear, “Comfort, comfort my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that her warfare is ended, that her iniquity is pardoned...A voice says, “Cry!” And I said, “What shall I cry?” All flesh is grass, and all its beauty is like the flower of the field. The grass withers, the flower fades when the breath of the Lord blows on it; surely the people are grass. The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever.”³

This Word of God stands forever, and while your work of serving and loving each other is hard, you need to hear that this is not your work! The creed gives these humbling facts. God is the one who created everything. I didn't do it. You didn't do it. It is God who determines right and wrong, and by His standards, we don't even come close to perfect.

“It is taught among us that we cannot obtain forgiveness of sin and righteousness before God by our own merits, works, or satisfactions, but that we receive forgiveness of sin and become righteous before God by grace, for Christ's sake.”⁴ Jesus Christ, true God and true man, “has redeemed me, a lost and condemned person, purchased and won me from all sins, from death, and from the power of the devil; not with gold or silver, but with His holy, precious blood and with His innocent suffering and death, that I may be His own.”

God has not only created and redeemed, but it is He who makes holy. “I believe that I cannot by my own reason or strength believe in Jesus Christ, my Lord, or come to Him; but the Holy Spirit has called me by the Gospel, enlightened me with His gifts, sanctified and kept me in the true faith.”

³ Isaiah 40:1-2, 6-8

⁴ AC IV

So that we may never doubt that He is here. He has promised that where two or three are gathered together in His name, He is in their midst. He has attached His very word to water, giving the baptized a lavish washing away of sin. There is no doubt that the one who is baptized is redeemed. The victory of Christ's death is given to the person as they are washed in the blood of the Lamb. As you are baptized into His death, you are given His life. It is here where the work of both pastor and people, preacher and hearers, becomes infinitely easier.

*“Comfort, comfort ye My people, ‘Speak ye peace,’ thus saith our God; ‘Comfort those who sit in darkness, Mourning ’neath their sorrows’ load.”*⁵ The greatest challenge for us sinners, Pastor and people alike, is to place too much hope, trust, and comfort in ourselves. The devil, the world, and our sinful nature deceive us, and mislead us into false belief, despair, and other great shame and vice.

For this very reason, for our comfort and strength, not only did God give us His Word, preaching and absolution, not only did He attach His word of promise and comfort to water for us in baptism, He joins His word to bread and wine and we feast with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven. Here at the altar, we feast for our forgiveness, for our life, for our strength. Here the Gospel is given to the faithful. Here you receive comfort. Here you receive double for your sins. God takes your sin, your guilt, your iniquity and gives you double back, as He gives you His body and His blood.

As we live in the valley of the shadow of death, as the grass withers, and the flower fades, here we proclaim the Lord's death until He comes. Here the victory of the cross and the triumph over the grave is poured into your mouth. When we begin to think too highly of ourselves and our work, we only have to crawl to this altar, and here, we are reminded of Christ crucified for us. Here we are reminded of the God, whose work is for us. Here we are reminded of and given the very body of the Good shepherd who laid down His life for us sheep. Yes, “The word of the cross is folly to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.”⁶ Amen.

I urge you to join me this month in praying for both pastors and people alike, by singing together TLH 485 Lord Jesus, Who Art Come:

Ok, let's address the looming cloud that has blown our way from Washington D.C. which threatens our Church, congregations, and schools as well as rostered workers. I speak of the "Equality Act" that is being discussed in the U.S. House of Representatives and Senate. President Harrison and Dr. Greg Seltz have already written a letter to the Synod concerning this issue. Both men display strong biblical knowledge and a keen awareness of the potential consequences to the Church should this act pass into law. If you have not read these two letters I urge you to do so.

Both letters offer concise evaluation of the Act as well as very pious suggestions as to what we can do about these pending dangers. They offer two very sound pieces of advice. First, the best we can do at this point is to pray for our leaders and pray that God's wisdom would shine upon them and that their minds as well as actions would reflect the will of our Lord. The other action we can take is to contact our legislators we have elected to office for the purpose of leading this nation in honesty, fairness, and justice.

Taking into account the very serious and dangerous consequences for the Church should this Act become law, I want to address what we as the Church will do. In short, we will continue to do what we have been doing. We will remain faithful to what we vowed and confessed is the holy Truth of God. The theology of the Written Word directs our actions and oversees our practice. To acquiesce to the threats of punishment for preaching and teaching the Word of God is far more dangerous to the soul than any threats to the body. The Church is the Body of Christ and She has only one mouth. She cannot say anything different than what the Holy Spirit has already recorded through the Apostles and the Prophets.

I think of the Reformers of the 16th century who were persecuted by those who were placed in office to protect their rights. When those rights were taken away the Lutheran Fathers gathered together to put together a comprehensive publication of the correct exhibition of Scripture. It is called the Book of Concord. In the preface to the Book of Concord, page 12, they said:

"As indicated above, our disposition and intention has always been directed toward the goal that no other doctrine be treated and taught in our lands, territories, schools, and churches than that alone which is based on the Holy Scriptures of God and is embodied in the Augsburg Confession and its Apology, correctly understood, and that no doctrine be permitted entrance which is contrary to these."

We will not shrink back from our confession nor will we adopt practices ordered by the Government that are in direct opposition to the Word of God. Might this mean persecution? No doubt. The Church ought to expect persecution. Satan never rests and is beguiling enough to know when to strike against the Church. It seems as though now is one of his efforts. Here is the point: Satan does not win. He has already been defeated. Even if we should be threatened with death the Christian does not bow down to this. Are we not victors over sin and death? Have we not been baptized into the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ? What can death do to us to but only serve as the portal to eternal bliss. Not that we look to hasten this but we will not be threatened away from or out of faith in Jesus Christ alone.

History has shown us that in times of persecution the Church has been purified and grown. In a sermon preached on Matthew 22:15-22 Luther once said, "In fact, the more the wisdom of the world rises up against the truth, the purer and clearer the truth becomes." In another sermon preached on Matthew 2:13-23 Luther proclaimed, "When they shed innocent blood, this blood of the Christian is to act as a fertilizer on the field, making it rich and productive. For through persecution Christendom grows; conversely, Christians become lazy and lax when conditions are peaceful and quiet."

These are words from a true servant of the Word. A man who went through various persecutions from the state and from the Roman Church. He spoke truth then and it stands as truth today. We fear nothing from the world when it spews forth Satanic directions. Our ears have been addressed by the Living Lord Himself. To Him we cling and with Him we survive this world with the sure and certain hope of everlasting life.

I pray each day that greater wisdom rest on the hearts and minds of those voting on the "Equality Act." I also pray, no matter the outcome, we remain faithful to the only power, strength, and truth we have. In Christ we have a Savior who has overcome all threats and persecutions. Read Acts 5:17-42 again. The Apostles rejoiced when persecuted since that meant they were considered worthy to suffer for He who suffered for them. In Him, we shall overcome as well.

God grant you all peace and joy.

As was decided at the last Voter's Meeting, the elders discussed beginning ushers, servers, and greeters.

We will begin these roles in July.

If you are not wanting to be on these lists, please let the office know by June 1. This will give time for lists to be compiled and published before July 1.

The elders have also discussed the duties of ushers, and beginning July 1, the ushers will have new duties. It will be mostly be back to normal, except we will not have ushers during communion, nor will we use ushers to collect the offering; the offering plate will remain in the back. The ushers will be responsible for hymn boards, greeting at the sanctuary doors, distributing bulletins and ushering out after church.

Thank you for your patience as we have walked together through this past year.

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod LCMS Stewardship Ministry Newsletter article – June 2021

“There are three conversions necessary to every man: the head, the heart, and the purse.” Attributed to Luther, though yet to be located in his vast writings, this statement echoes what Jesus taught about hearts and treasures. He said, “For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.” (Matthew 6:21; Luke 12:34)

But which conversion comes first? I submit that the order is this: first the head, then the purse, then the heart. Let’s explore this topic.

Our Lord Jesus Christ dwelt among us to save us. He took on our flesh, fulfilled the demands of the law in our place, became sin for us, and suffered torture and death on our behalf. He did this in order that we would be free from sin, death, and hell. He gives us what He accomplished through Baptism, Absolution, and the Lord’s Supper. And so, He doesn’t just do it for us but gives it to us. He makes what He did ours by making us His. Thus, we are called by His name: Christians. We have a new life in Him.

Through the preaching of Law and Gospel, God grants us repentance, a changing of our minds. It is a conversion of the mind. We are called to turn away from our sins and turn toward Him for forgiveness, life, and salvation. For when God calls us away from something, He is, at the same time, calling us to something.

And thus, He calls us to a new life, with new deeds. This is the conversion of the purse. Jesus said that “it is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.” (Matthew 19:24) “For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.” Notice that our hearts follow our treasures, not the other way around. As Christians, God calls us to invest our treasures in His Kingdom to ensure that the gospel is preached and the sacraments are administered. He calls us to share all good things with the one who teaches us the doctrines of Christ. He calls us to be generous in giving to the church, for it is more blessed to give than to receive.

So where is your treasure? If it is not invested in the kingdom of God, then the only response is repentance – a conversion of the heart – and to begin doing just that. And as our Lord promised, where your treasure is there your heart will be also.

This is not to say that you earn your way into heaven. It is simply to say that as Christians, those who have been made to be temples of the Holy Spirit, who have been given a new life in Christ, who are dead to sin and now alive in Him, we are actually to live – think (conversion of the mind), do (conversion of the purse), and be (conversion of the heart) – a new life in Him. And when you fail, know that God in Christ loves and forgives you and still calls you away from that and to Himself.

Fundraiser Auction & Camp Scholarships

Summer is happening, and that is great news for our campers and their families! We've already noticed how much being out at Camp for retreats and outdoor education how much campers miss being outdoors having that extra bit of fun and learning. We need your help as we get back to doing what only we do best at Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca. The first is that we are ahead of this year's goal for summer campers, and that is great news indeed! On the flip side, that means we are currently up to $3,000 short of a fully funded Camp Scholarship fund. Campers and their families depend on financial support so that they can have the extra bit of Christian fun and learning that they have been missing over the course of the pandemic.

We are also happy to announce that our Fundraiser Auction will be held on Saturday, July 31! This is always a special day where friends of Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca are able to come and celebrate the completion of another summer of sharing Christ with our campers and guests. As always, we need donations such as quilts, crafts, and other unique items to auction off for the benefit of Camp Io-Dis-E-Ca, and we'll also need bidders! Earlier that day we are also hoping to have our 1-mile and 5K runs, where the top three placers in each race win camp scholarships towards next year's camps.

We are very excited about this summer and all the joy that comes with our mission of providing Christ-centered education, recreation, and inspiration for all of our campers and guests.

Jesus said to His disciples, “Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel to the whole creation. Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved, but whoever does not believe will be condemned.” (Mark 16:15-16) Paul wrote to Timothy, “Keep a close watch on yourself and on the teaching. Persist in this, for by so doing you will save both yourself and your hearers.” (1 Tim. 4:16)

In effort to preach the Gospel to the members of Immanuel, the Pastor and elder’s are tasked with keeping close watch on both the teaching and its hearers. There are several members of Immanuel for whom we have either no contact information, or not the correct contact information. If you do, we are asking you to pass it along to either Pastor or the Board of Elders (Joel McDonough, Steve Haase, Darlo Kelting, and Ken Mergen), so that we can, “consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the day drawing near.” (Hebrew 10:24-25)

If we have no contact information for these members by the Voter’s Meeting in July, their names will be brought forward for self-exclusion.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS:

- Susan Ford motioned to approve Joel McDonough as Immanuel's Delegate for the 2021 District Convention with Steve Haase as the alternate. Diane Schultz 2nd. Motion carried.
- Presidents of the LCMS are recommending moving the Synodical convention from 2022 to 2023. This will allow districts who could not meet due to restrictions from Covid-19 to reschedule. Those currently in an office will hold their positions for another year. If congregations vote no, the Synod will not be allowed to take care of all certain business requirements. One-fourth of congregations in the district must vote yes to move forward with this proposal. Steve Haase entertained a motion be made to vote yes and move the Synodical Convention out for 1 year. Helen Thorpe motioned and Marvin Honold 2nd. Motion carried.
- Anyone interested in becoming a nominee for the LCMS Convention please contact Steve Haase or Pastor Koepp before April's voter meeting.
- Pastor Koepp submitted a request allowing him to attend a program at the St. Louis Seminary to receive his academic/practical Ph.D. in Homiletics (preaching). With the big changes churches are facing over the next 10 to 20 years we should want to consider following:
 1. Adding a Ph.D. in academics opens the opportunity to teach college courses. If Immanuel and another church ever combined we would be ready with a teacher in place and a pastor to support both churches.
 2. The class schedule includes traveling to St. Louis for 2 weeks in January and 2 weeks in June 2022. All other classes/work would be done at Immanuel.
 3. Pastor Koepp is only asking for some of his time to be freed up to complete this program.
 4. Tuition will be covered by academic grants.

Helen Thorpe motioned to approve Rev. Dr. Joel Koepp pursuing an academic/practical PH.D through the St. Louis Seminary starting in January 2022. Pam Haase 2nd. Motion carried.

- The 2020 audit will be completed by Helen Thorpe, Pam Haase, and Daniel McDonough.

With no other business to discuss meeting was adjourned by singing the Doxology.

Next Voters Meeting: April 18th, 2021.
