

“The Great Call to Lord Work”

1 Corinthians 15:58

1 Corinthians 15:58 — “Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.”

I. “Therefore” – points to previous statements of great importance.

A. Paul highlights in chapter 15 the three Christian victories at the return of Christ:

1. The great resurrection – the victory over the grave.

a. 1 Corinthians 15:42–43 — “⁴² So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown a perishable body, it is raised an imperishable body; ⁴³ it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power; se deshonna, se resucita en gloria; se siembra en debilidad, se resucita en poder;”

2. The great transformation – the victory over mortality.

a. 1 Corinthians 15:52–53 — “⁵² in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. ⁵³ For this perishable must put on the imperishable, and this mortal must put on immortality.”

3. The permanent victory over death and sin -

a. 1 Corinthians 15:54–55 — “⁵⁴ ... then will come about the saying that is written, “Death is swallowed up in victory. ⁵⁵ “O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?””

II. The three commandments that will guarantee the greatest outcome for the glorified believer.

*... be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord...

A. We must be steadfast – has the meaning of being seated, settled, and firmly situated.

B. We must be immovable – not be moved away from the will of God and the work of God. As Paul illustrates -2 Timothy 2:4

C. We must abound in the work of the Lord.

1. “Abounding” means to exceed the requirements. To go beyond the limits.

2. As long as a believer breathes, he should be abounding in service to the Lord.

III. The work of the Lord is at the center of Paul’s teaching.

1 Corinthians 15:58 — *“Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord...”

A. What exactly is the work of the Lord? Jesus summed it up when He said, “go and make disciples, teaching them to obey all that I have commanded them.”

B. Paul gave 3 areas they needed to do the work of the Lord:

1. Hold fast and preach the gospel clearly.

a. 1 Corinthians 15:1–2

2. Build up the body of Christ through spiritual gifts.

3. Endeavor to live a life of love that glorifies the Lord.

a. 1 Corinthians 16:13

b. 1 Corinthians 6:20

c. 1 Corinthians 10:31

C. Paul provides the proper motivation for the Lord’s worker.

“... knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.”

1. The glory of the finish line is the correct motivation.

2. A believer’s motivation comes from knowing the immense reward that comes for his labor. Romans 8:18
