The Haunted Through Lounge &
Recessed Dining Nook
at Farndale
by
Walter Zerlin, Jr.
& David McGillivray

The Farndale Avenue Housing Estate Townswomen's Guild Dramatic Society is the worst community theatre ever. Performing the worst play ever written, this spectacle is sure to bring the house down along with a good portion of the set.

Directed by Vicki Markham

It's a Wonderful Life
A Live Radio Play
adapted by Joe Landry

Spend the holidays with the good folks of Bedford Falls and have a front row seat for the most important Christmas Eve of George Bailey's life. A small ensemble of actors brings Frank Capra's classic to captivating life as a 1940's radio show.

Directed by Tom Emerson, Jr.

Feb. 28-March 3 & 7-10, 2019

To help with your first steps in the great beyond, there's Stella (she's good!) and Cessal (he's very, very bad). She'll take you to heaven and he... won't. Conflict, chaos and comedy are in the air as someone's demoted and someone else steps up! From our favorite playwright!

It Runs in the Family
by
Ray Cooney

The doctor's big speech is this morning, but first an old nurse shows up with a son she says is his. The boy's fighting his way through the hospital to find him and cops want to speak with the dad about this but his wife is here for the speech and his colleagues need him at rehearsal for the staff play. From Britain's master of the farce!

Directed by Lori Barcus & Les Thomas
