Dear Friends of CACAGNY,

Welcome to the First Anniversary Dinner of CACAGNY, the Greater New York Chapter of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance!

Warm greetings to our special guests, including our past National President Ed Gor and others who came from far away, and, most notably, our inspiring Honorees Charles Pei Wang, Dragon Deng, and Peter Woo. Each of these honorees has great professional accomplishments, yet never lost vision of the greater community, greater country, and greater good. It is our privilege to have them here tonight. They are beacons to Chinese Americans – all Americans, in fact – by making admirable imprints in this country. They have carved out a space in America, just as we must all do, with honor and integrity, to whatever degree we can, big or small. Chinese Americans are carving out our place in this country, from physically in the mountains for America's railroads, to metaphorically in the halls of its institutions and records of achievements. Our country will be much better with our dedicated contributions.

In our first year, CACAGNY has begun to make its imprint, working on many projects you will see in this journal. We thank our sponsors and advertisers who have generously supported us as we carve our space together in Greater New York. Without your tremendous sponsorship, we cannot pursue our common goals. We also owe special thanks to our members who in an amazingly short year have done so much.

Thank you all for your great support. Please enjoy our First Anniversary Dinner, and we look forward to a wonderful second year together!

Best regards,

Wai Wah Chin 陳慧華
President

CACAGNY Leadership Award

Charles Pei Wang

Charles Pei Wang is currently President, Chinese American Cultural & Art Association, a New York based non-profit NGO specialized in promoting, bridging two way cultural exchange between U.S. and China. Prior to this new venture, Charles served as the Director of the Child Care Center Development Fund at United Neighborhood Houses. In 1994, Mr. Wang was appointed by then Governor Mario Cuomo as an Assistant Commissioner for Downstate Operations with the NY State Department of Social Services. In 1995, he became the First Executive Director of Chinese descent to head up the Greater Blouse, Skirt & Undergarment Association, a 500 member garment trade association in New York City.

From 1968 to 1989, Mr. Wang worked at the Chinese American Planning Council (CPC) in New York City's Chinatown. He held various positions at CPC, including managing director and executive director, and helped make CPC one of the largest and most prominent social services agencies for the Chinese American community. From 1989 to 1993, Mr. Wang served as President of China Institute in America, and brought back to life this old cultural and art institution found in 1930. As a strong advocate for the right of Asian immigrants, Mr. Wang made possible the first public hearing on New York Asian American Affairs sponsored by the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights in 1974, and the publication of Outlook of Asian Americans in New York, by Untied Way-Tri State in 1989. From 1990 to 1995, Mr. Wang was appointed by then President George H.W. Bush as Vice Chairman of U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, a sub-cabinet rank position, with the History of Discrimination Against Asian Americans in U.S.A. published by the Commission, the most comprehensive account of all legislation by the U.S. government against Asians to date. He also led the opening of a Social Security Administration office and the construction of new public housing, hospital, senior housing, public school, and a new post office in Chinatown, along with the formation of Chinese Immigrant service organizations of North America.

Five consecutive U.S. presidents have appointed Mr. Wang to commissions, beginning with President Jimmy Carter to the President's Commission on Mental Health/Asian American Panel. In 1980, Mr. Wang was invited to serve on the New York State Crime Prevention Task Force, and the New York State Governor's Task Force on Health Care Financing. In 1982, he was elected as Secretary on the Board of Directors of the United Way of New York City, in 1989, Chairman of the Chinese Community Relations Council, and on the Boards of New York City Partnership, Emblem Health Service and the WNET-Channel 13 Tri-State Community Board. Among his positions, he was Co-Chairman of the Human Service Council of New York, Vice Chairman of the New York City Health System Agency, Secretary of the Private Industry Council and Chairman of the U.S. Bureau of the Census 1990-2000 Asian and Pacific Islanders Advisory Committee, under President Ford and Reagan; National Advisory Board to U.S. Department of Labor, under President George W. Bush; Co-Chairman of China AIDS Fund, and co-founder of Committee of 100. Mr. Wang helped Dr. Kissinger open diplomatic relations with the People's Republic of China. To stimulate between China and United States, he was appointed an advisor to Matsuoka America, a garment manufacturer in China, Rilin Construction Group, and later formed Rosen/Wang Global Partners to provide consultation and advice to firms doing business in U.S. and China. Mr. Wang's numerous awards for his distinguished service include the Ellis Island Medal of Honor and Charles Wang Day in Manhattan.

December 2, 2017

Dear Members and Friends of the Greater New York Lodge,

It is with great pride and immense pleasure that I congratulate you on the one year anniversary of the re-chartering of the GNY Lodge! Considering how quickly the leadership and members mobilized each other to embrace the principles and objectives of C.A.C.A. towards actions and achievements to better the Chinatown community, we can only ask ourselves the question, "What took us so long to come back to New York?"

Greater New York Lodge immediately hit the ground running last year on December 3, 2016 to address the challenges and concerns facing the underserved and often ignored Chinese community. I applaud and commend GNY Lodge for calling attention to the crime and lack of safety experienced by residents and business owners in Chinatown. I applaud and commend GNY Lodge for calling attention to the evil acts of racism in the vandalism of a Chinese cemetery. I applaud and commend GNY Lodge for calling attention to the discrimination perpetrated upon high school students wishing to fulfill their dreams and that of their parents in attending the high schools and colleges of their choice. And I applaud and commend GNY Lodge for bringing together students to understand and appreciate the call to duty and patriotic service of our oft-forgotten Chinese American World War II Veterans.

And I am honored and humbled to be with Greater New York Lodge to present the initial Detective Wen Jian Liu Scholarship to a deserving young student to not only further their studies toward a potential career in law enforcement, but also to bring honor to the legacy that Detective Liu left. I am especially grateful that I can offer my appreciation to Detective Liu's parents and family for the privilege of honoring their son, her husband and our Toi-shan brother with this scholarship. Thank you!

Best regards,

Dear Greater New York Lodge Members:

Congratulations to the Greater New York Lodge on the occasion of its one-year anniversary. And what a year it has been.

Just in its very first year, Lodge members have much to be proud of. Among the Lodge's numerous accomplishments, it has: sponsored a Council District 38 Candidate Forum; engaged voters and informed them on candidate positions; rallied with Elmhurst United protesting the Pan Am Shelter; held a Mid-Autumn Film Festival with films by or about Chinese Americans; awarded students scholarships; conducted educational forums; supported the Department of Justice's investigation of discriminatory admissions at Harvard University; held several crime and safety forums; protested racially-insensitive lyrics by rapper YG; and most recently, joined the community effort leading to the arraignment of three people who desecrated Chinese grave sites at Cypress Hills Cemetery.

In addition to its local efforts, the Greater New York Lodge has also been active with national issues. The Lodge has, for example joined in the national effort to secure the Gold Medal for Chinese American World War II Veterans.

We are grateful for your dedication and contribution with our distinguished organization. On behalf of everyone whose lives have been changed by your involvement with the Alliance, thank you.

Best wishes on this special celebration, your accomplishments and the continuing efforts in promoting justice and equality for all Americans.

Best regards,

Long “Dragon” Deng

Mr. Long Deng is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of iFresh, Inc. and President of NewYorkMart, Inc. Mr. Deng moved to the U.S. back in the 1990s and founded his empire from a food importation and wholesale company called Strong America, and then developed a chain of Chinese supermarket stores along the east coast. These businesses transformed into iFresh, Inc., the first Chinese / Asian supermarket group to be listed on an American exchange; iFresh, Inc. (NASDAQ:IFMK) listed on Nasdaq created a milestone in Chinese American history. Mr. Deng’s leadership has grown iFresh to over twenty supermarkets in New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Maryland, and Florida. Mr. Deng has been the Finance Co-Chair of the New York Republican State Committee since 2014. During the 2016 Presidential Election, he was one of the major supporters to President Trump. As President of U.S. Chinese Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Deng has fostered better business relations between U.S. and China.

CACAGNY Patriot Award

Peter Woo

The Seventh Legionnaire Past Post Commander Peter Woo was born in Taishan County, China, in 1919, around the time of the May 4th Movement in China when the intelligensia and college students called for the replacement of literary Chinese with the common vernacular. In Taishan, Mr. Woo received the equivalent of four years of English education taught by American Catholics. After he graduated at age 16 from the Taishan Normal School, he was able to visit Nanjing, where he acquired fluency in the mandarin tongue.

In 1937, armed with an immigration letter, Mr. Woo departed from China and immigrated to the United States of America via Seattle. He boarded a train to Canada before arriving in New York City, where his father conducted his business. In 1943, he was studying at New York University when the U. S. Army drafted him into the military service.

Commander Woo went to Camp Robinson, Arkansas, for basic training. He was then transferred to Camp Bennett, Texas, where he became an interpreter for other Chinese soldiers inducted into the American Army. Later, Mr. Woo was dispatched to Patterson Field, Ohio, where he hooked up with the 407th Air Force on special assignment. His classified secret assignment exempted him from performing KP (kitchen police) duties. His assignment put him on a convoy which traveled to Africa, through the Red Sea, in India, and finally to an area bordering China, where he stayed for six months.

Mr. Woo's ability to speak mandarin and understand English led to his posting with the 14th Air Force. There, he attended the highest official meetings. During his stint, the Japanese planes bombed Hankow. When the U. S. 14th Air Force retaliated by bombing Japanese occupied territory in China, but mistakenly attacked the Chinese forces in the Chunking – Chengdu area in Sichuan Province, Mr. Woo was selected to participate in the Allied top secret meeting to rectify this matter. They established new procedures to prevent another tragic recurrence. Mr. Woo served three years with the 407th Unit in China, where he faithfully translated secret documents, participated in negotiations with the Chinese Army, and in the reporting of untoward behavior by Chinese troops up the chain of command to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Mr. Woo generally held fond memories of his service hitch. His less than palatable memorable experience occurred when he was being flown to India. Two Japanese aircrafts followed and bombed the airport. As Commander Woo described it, he became so scared that he could hardly walk.

When he returned to the States, he entered the wholesale seafood business, selling shrimp, lobster, and fish. Mr. Woo soon joined other veterans in establishing the Chinatown branch of the American Legion in Manhattan. At that time, the ex-servicemen were hoodlums who were not so educated, and who indulged in gambling. Commanders came from the On Leong Hong and Hip Sing Hong associations. The members held independent $4,000 bank accounts.

When Mr. Woo became the Post Commander (1955-1958), he attempted to be fair to every member, and was able to consolidate $70,000 for the post. He was instrumental in the purchase of the building at 191 Canal Street for the Lt. Kimlau Post, the present site of Post 1291. He had wanted to purchase the building for himself by paying a $10,000 deposit. However, the members trusted him and opted to have the building be designated for use by the local American Legion Post as long as he agreed to be responsible for running the building and overseeing the mortgage payments.

Honoring Chinese American World War II Vets for their Patriotism & Service

CACAGNY and American Legion Lt. B.R. Kimlau Chinese Memorial Post 1291 jointly sponsored a press conference on Flag Day and a volunteer Awards ceremony on Thanksgiving for Congressional Bills S.1050 and H.R. 2358 “Chinese-American World War II Veteran Congressional Gold Medal Act” to honor Chinese American patriots during WWII.

December 2, 2017

Dear Friends:

It is a pleasure to send greetings to everyone gathered for the First Anniversary Dinner of the New York Chapter of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance (C.A.C.A).

The Empire State's greatest strength is its cultural diversity, which includes a thriving population of Chinese Americans who enrich our society. Founded nearly 125 years ago in San Francisco, the C.A.C.A. has been a steadfast foundation of support and advocacy for the Chinese American community through its social, health, and educational resources and services.

Today, the New York Chapter celebrates the one-year anniversary of its reestablishment as an affiliate of the Alliance, serving youth, adults, and seniors within the metropolitan region. This valuable network of assistance for individuals and entire families is proud to remain an affiliate of an important resource that upholds a long tradition of service to others and I join congratulating all who continue to work toward its meaningful objectives.

Warmest regards and best wishes for every future success.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

Please accept my warmest greetings and sincerest congratulations as you gather for the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's 1st Anniversary Dinner. I am grateful for the opportunity to recognize the exemplary work of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York, its officers, staff and volunteers on this auspicious occasion.

Founded in 1895, the C.A.C.A continues to be a staunch advocate of empowering Chinese Americans. Guided by the ideals of patriotism, civility and dedication to family and culture, the C.A.C.A has fought against racial discrimination, defended civil rights, opposed anti-immigration movements and countered efforts to marginalize Chinese American culture and heritage. After a 30-year hiatus, last December the New York chapter of the C.A.C.A re-emerged and has since dedicated its time to strengthening our community. The CACAGNY has been able to provide members of our community with scholarships as well as opportunities to gain insight on political candidates, the college admissions process and methods to combat crime and promote safety in our neighborhoods through its various forums. I applaud the CACAGNY for its commitment to bettering the lives of people in our community.

I would also like to congratulate tonight's distinguished honorees: Charles Pei Wang, recipient of the Gold Medal Service Award and Chinese American WWII Veterans, recipients of the Patriot Award, to be accepted by the Lt. BR Kimlau American Legion Post 1291. I am pleased to join everyone gathered here this evening in recognizing these individuals for their dedication to the mission of the C.A.C.A. Their vision and commitment serves as an inspiration to us all. I would also like to recognize tonight's special presentation of the Detective Wen Jian Liu Scholarship. Detective Wen Jian Liu exemplified strength, honor and dedication to serving our community and I commend the CACAGNY for creating a scholarship in his memory.

Again, thank you and congratulations on behalf of all New Yorkers. I am confident that the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York will continue its noble efforts for years to come. Best wishes for an inspirational event!

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

It is a privilege to send greetings to everyone attending Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's Annual Gala and Awards Dinner. Congratulations to tonight's honorees on a well-deserved recognition.

I am grateful to organizations like the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York (CACAGNY) for promoting the advancement of our Chinese American community in New York. Through education, advocacy and organizing, CACAGNY is standing for equity and equality. It is my sincere hope that this continued work inspires others to become invested in community development.

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful event and many more years of continued success.

December 2, 2017

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to join the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York in welcoming everyone to its First Anniversary Dinner.

With roots dating back to 1895, C.A.C.A has long been a leader in advocating for the rights and wellbeing of Asian Americans throughout the United States, and its New York Chapter was re-chartered last year to help advance its important mission. By providing scholarships, offering workshops about crime prevention and the college admissions process, addressing issues that impact Chinese Americans and hosting cultural events that preserve their rich heritage, this wonderful organization has uplifted so many people in the five boroughs and beyond. As you gather in fellowship to celebrate everything this Chapter has accomplished in its inaugural year, I applaud its members and supporters for their efforts to foster civic engagement, unite and empower our vital Chinese community, and uphold our city's core values of equality and diversity. Together, we will ensure our great city remains an inclusive hub of opportunity for New Yorkers of all backgrounds.

On behalf of the City of New York, congratulations to tonight's honorees. Please accept my best wishes for a festive evening and continued success.

Sincerely,

CACAGNY Service Recognition Award

CACAGNY is grateful for the hard work of community members who toil, sometimes for years, on projects that affect the daily lives of their neighbors, without any thought of recognition. Whether fighting for better schools or access to them, protecting the Specialized High Schools, or protesting improper dumping of crime-ridden shelters on unequipped neighborhoods, they work tirelessly, bravely and with commitment for their community. We recognize with great appreciation two CACAGNY members, Phil Wong and Charles Vavruska, as well as Elmhurst United, which includes many CACAGNY members, for their great service to our communities.

C.A.C.A. Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship

The Chinese American Citizens Alliance Community Involvement Fund will fund the first Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship in honor of the Chinese American policeman slain in December 2014 while protecting and serving as one of New York City's finest. C.A.C.A. members from as far away as California and Oregon, led by President Ed Gor from Texas, were moved by the death of Det. Wenjian Liu three years ago in New York. Det. Wenjian Liu was from Toishan (Taishan) of Guangdong, a place many Chinese Americans call ancestral home; nearly all the early Chinese immigrants to the U.S. came from that one county. Our President Gor, also of Toishan County, reached out to our C.A.C.A. members to honor Liu with a living memorial to make a real, lasting impact to improve the future of our communities. Our members responded immediately and contributed funds to establish a scholarship to be named in honor of Det. Wenjian Liu and to support other Chinese-Americans who hope to serve their community by police work. We are pleased to present our first Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarships of $1,000 each award to two New Yorkers who aspire to become police officers: current John Jay College sophomore Harrison Yuan and junior Peng Zhang.

Also awarded this year: President Award to Ed Gor for incomparable service to CACAGNY formation.

*Congratulations to

Thank you for your services to our Community and our Country.

New York NY 10002

Dear Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York:

I am delighted to extend my warmest greetings to all gathered at the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's First Anniversary Dinner at the Golden Unicorn Restaurant in New York City!

The Chinese American Citizens Alliance (CACA) was originally founded in 1895 in San Francisco by a collection of Asian-American men of Chinese descent who were passionate about defending and advocating for the civil rights of Chinese Americans in the United States. Throughout its history, CACA has engaged in a multitude of efforts in fighting unfair legislation, promoting American citizenship and virtue, and preserving Chinese heritage and culture. After a thirty year absence from operating in New York, CACAGNY is now back one-hundred years after the chapter's original founding. The new membership is comprised of active community leaders who seek to empower and enhance the future of Chinese-Americans in the United States.

I am honored to congratulate the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York as it celebrates its first anniversary. I commend CACAGNY for their ongoing commitment to promoting Chinese-American interests based on the principles and values of fairness, equal opportunity, patriotism, civility, and a dedication to family and culture.

Please accept my best wishes for a wonderful dinner and much continued success!

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to join you in celebrating the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York in celebrating this first anniversary.

Since 1895, CACA has empowered Chinese Americans, defended civil rights, and promoted Chinese American culture and heritage. Your work is a great service to the Chinese American community in New York City, and I am glad that CACAGNY has returned after a hiatus.

On behalf of the Borough of Manhattan, I thank you for your service and wish you many years of success.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends,

Congratulations to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance (C.A.C.A.) of Greater New York on your Inaugural Dinner Celebration on December 2, 2017.

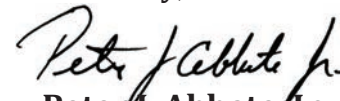

I am delighted that the New York chapter of the C.A.C.A is once again an integral part of a national organization that has empowered and assisted Chinese Americans since 1895.

2017 marks one hundred and first year since the original inception of the kindred C.A.C.A group in New York, a new and innovative group of active community leaders and advocates has taken on the responsibility in New York of fostering Chinese American interests as well as building upon the rich history.

I look forward to continuing to work with the CACAGNY and your ongoing mission of fairness, equal opportunity, the principles of patriotism, civility, dedication to family and culture, with the highest ethical and moral standards.

Again, best wishes for a most successful Dinner.

Dear President Wai Wah Chin:

Congratulations to the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York on your reorganizing as the New York Chapter after a 30 year hiatus as the New York Chapter of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance. The Chinese American Citizens Alliance has been serving Chinese Americans since 1895 and we welcome you in once again being reestablished as the New York Chapter.

I especially want to congratulate you in that you will be AWARDING the first recipients of your Detective Wenjian Liu Law Enforcement Scholarship.

I congratulate your President Wai Wah Chin and all your officers' great success as you back to New York the services for which your parent organization has been renowned.

I am sure that this will bring great benefits to all those with whom your New York Chapter comes into contact.

Very truly yours,

Dear Friends:

I am delighted to congratulate you as you celebrate the culmination of your first year of service.

I am also pleased that, after a 30-year hiatus, CACAGNY has been rechartered and reinvigorated, and will continue to pursue its original mission of empowering Chinese Americans. It is especially admirable that you work to realize the principles of fairness and equal opportunity in your many programs, and that you foster patriotism, civility, and dedication to family and culture.

All New Yorkers appreciate your scholarship awards to outstanding students, which will benefit not only the Chinese American community but all the residents of New York. Your forums on such pressing issues as crime and safety, education, and political participation inform and educate everyone. These activities also foster a close understanding between the Chinese American community and its multicultural neighbors in New York.

Congratulations to your honorees for their contributions to the community. I would also like to congratulate the first recipients of your Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship.

I wish you every measure of success as you continue your good work now and in the future.

Dear Friends,

It is my great pleasure to greet attendees at the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's First Anniversary Dinner. Today's event offers a special opportunity to celebrate a new beginning for an organization that is committed to making a difference for the Chinese American community in New York City.

Since returning from a 30-year hiatus, the Chinese American Citizens Alliance has served as an anchor in our community, providing scholarships and hosting forums on public safety, political engagement and civic empowerment.

Tonight, the Chinese American Citizens Alliance has created a space to recognize the everyday heroes in our community who champion the organization's mission of public service, by awarding the first recipients of its Detective Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship.

As the Council Member representing Lower Manhattan, it is a privilege to fight alongside such passionate individuals who tirelessly work to uplift our neighborhoods. Thank you for your contributions, and I send you my best wishes for continued success in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

It is with great pleasure that I extend my warmest greetings and congratulations on the occasion of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's First Anniversary Dinner celebration at the Golden Unicorn Restaurant.

After a 30-year hiatus, last December the alliance brought back to new York a chapter of the national Chinese American Citizens Alliance, which has served as a nationally known advocate for Chinese Americans since 1895

On behalf of the New York City Council, I'd like to commend the officers, staff and members of the New York Chapter of the Chinese American Citizens Alliance for their tireless work in providing needed services to our community. Congratulations also to the award recipients of the Det. Wenjian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful event.

Dear Friends,

Good evening to all at the Chinese American Citizens Alliance of Greater New York's First Anniversary Gala! I am honored to be your guest this evening, and I am so glad that the Greater New York Chapter of the CACA has returned after a long period of inactivity.

This organization is an incredible asset to the members of the Chinese-American community, and it gives me great pride to join you all tonight to celebrate another year of powerful and inspiring advocacy for our people. I am delighted to help present to you our three honorees!

Charles P. Wang, President of the Chinese-American Culture & Art Association, has held numerous positions and received multiple awards for his work in social services, been a strong advocate for immigrants' and civil rights, even serving on George H.W. Bush's U.S. Commission on Civil Rights and has worked hard to promote trade between the United States and China.

Long "Dragon" Deng, as the Co-Chairman of the New York State Committee of Finance and the President of the United States Chinese Chamber of Commerce, is one of the most politically active members of our community, representing the interests of Chinese-Americans in government and in business.

Our third honoree, Peter Woo, is a veteran of the United States military who fought for our country during World War II. In addition to this already astounding commitment to service, Mr. Woo returned to America and has become one of the great philanthropists of our Chinese-American community.

All three of our honorees this evening deserve enormous praise and commendation, and I am proud to be included in recognizing their great achievements and their strong commitment to the Chinese-American community. Thank you all for joining us tonight and thank you so much to Mr. Wang, Mr. Deng, and Mr. Woo for being such fantastic representatives of our community and for all that you have done and will do to help Chinese-Americans in the United States.

Most Sincerely,

Tony Hwang

Dear Friends:

On behalf of the residents of my city and all Chinese Americans in Rhode Island, I am honored to attend your annual gala and recognize the hard work of so many individuals who have advanced the community's interest throughout their life.

The CACAGNY should be commended for your consistent fight to defend the civil rights of those in our Chinese American community and countering any efforts to marginalize our culture. I applaud your commitment to supporting community services, promoting responsible citizenship, and educating leaders about our important issues. In particular, I am proud to join you in your nationwide advocacy efforts to recognize Chinese American World War II veterans for their dedicated service to our country.

In addition, we cannot thank you enough for honoring the memory of one of our own fallen officers with the Detective Wen Jian Liu Memorial Law Enforcement Scholarship. His legacy will never be forgotten in the community, and I congratulate the scholarship recipients.

Please keep up your great work.

Sincerely,

Allan W. Fung
Mayor
