

Studio 55 Sky Gallery Exhibit

Springfield-Branson National Airport, 2300 N. Airport Blvd. Springfield, Missouri
November 13th thru February 12th

The Springfield Regional Arts Council (SRAC) and Sky Gallery at the Springfield-Branson National Airport invite you to submit to the Studio 55 Sky Gallery exhibition, opening November 13th, 2017 through February 12th, 2018. All participating artists must be current members of Studio 55 Fine Arts Guild.

Friday, October 20th: Submission deadline

To submit your work for consideration, please send no more than 7 entries in jpeg format to skygallery.sgf@gmail.com and send a Carbon Copy (CC) to studio55guild@gmail.com for our records.

Please submit pieces you intend for the show with nothing that has been featured in the Sky Gallery in the past 3 years. Include your name, title, size (outside dimension), medium, and contact information and put Studio 55 Exhibit in the subject of the email.

November 3rd: You will be notified of acceptance or rejection.

November 13th: 9-10 am: deliver art to Sky Gallery

All participating artists are expected to drop off their work at this time and assist in the hanging process if available.

February 12th: 9-10 am: pick up art

25% commission will be charged for all sold art. The Springfield Regional Arts Council will handle the sale and send you a check.

Preparation of Art:

1. It is preferred that each piece measure at least "36" on one side, however smaller pieces will be accepted if there are not enough larger pieces.
2. All art must have D-rings and wire hangers to be used on a hanging system at the airport. Wires should be placed no further down than 10 inches from the top of the piece.
3. Attach to the back of your art:
Your name, title, price, medium, and contact information.

All entries will be juried by an anonymous jury made up of members of the community who will decide the final pieces for the exhibit.

For more information on the Sky Gallery, please visit <http://flyspringfield.com/art>