

David Lobenberg - Classroom Watercolor Workshop Registration

The workshop will be 3 days, Thursday & Friday & Saturday, February 21, 22 and 23, 2019 - 9am to 4pm. The cost of the workshop will be $280 for CCWS Members and $315 for non-members. It will be held at the Nipomo Community Presbyterian Church, 1235 N. Thompson Rd., CA.

Lobenberg's figurative works are passionate and thoughtful with a unique perspective and tons of personality. He starts his painting action by building on a photo foundation. He demonstrates many expressive techniques showing how paint and especially color can be used in an abstract-like manner with splatters, drips, blossoms, runs, pours, textures, etc.

The workshop will focus on painting intuitively with spontaneous feeling and emotion. Rather than brown hair, the artist goes with purple or orange. Instead of observing the color differences between one side of a face and the other, the artist may sense one side green, the other lavender. To feel color in this way gives the artist a freedom of expression and a release from observable reality. Color is used as a powerful means of expressing and evoking emotions. His art work can be seen at his website, <https://lobenbergart.com/>
