Sept. 14-17 & 21-24, 2017

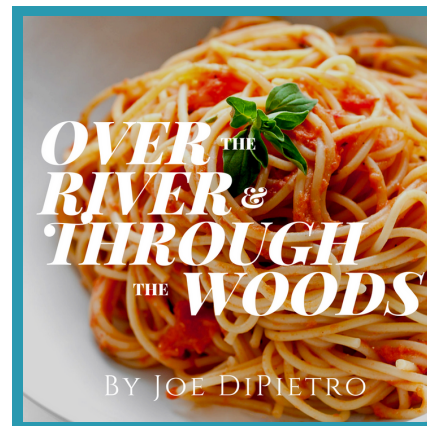

Directed by: Tom Emerson, Jr.
A scrapbook of stories about unfortunate prom dresses, the traumatic lighting in fitting rooms, high heels, first bras, short skirts and the never-ending state of having nothing to wear. Accessorizing these tales are the mothers who disapprove, the men who disappear, and the sisters who've got your back.

Nov. 30 - Dec. 3 & Dec. 7-10, 2017

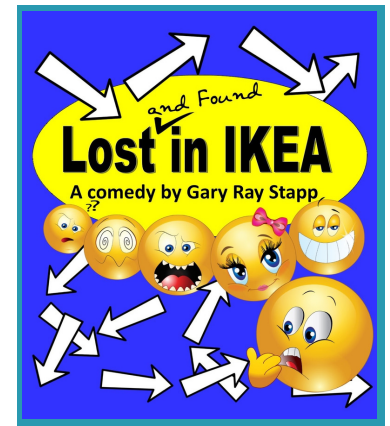

Directed by: Dennis Richards
Four authors meet at the home of a reclusive heiress to compete for a $100,000.00 prize. But it soon becomes very clear that it is going to be a tough choice to find an author worthy of the prize. In the end, it could be that the real lives of the authors are stranger than their fiction.

Mar. 1-4 & 8-11, 2018

Directed by: Krystal Stahl
Nick Cristano lives in New Jersey and has never missed Sunday dinner with his four Italian grandparents. Ever. And he just accepted the job of his dreams. In Seattle. These Italians are ready for war. They introduce him to the girl of his dreams. Where will he land? Right in the middle of a hilarious battle of cultures, generations and competing loves.

Jun. 7-10 & 14-17, 2018

Directed by: Gary Stapp
Laughter, love, and a host of cranky, crazy people appear to be "over-stocked" at IKEA, but be aware, you get what you pay for ... most of the time.

The Chamber Players are proud to produce another World Premiere by our in-house playwright and founding member, Gary Ray Stapp.
