February Director's Message

I took the bike out on Monday to top off with gas and take a short ride with the temperature in the 50's. With very little wind, it was a beautiful afternoon for riding—just a teaser for the spring rides! It won't be long now!

The weather was cool for our February gathering but no snow or rain to contend with for the evening. After welcoming everyone, the evening began with two challenging brain games, one a matching game pertaining to the word red and the other game a word search. We also found chocolate treats on the tables to help us concentrate. Some of us needed more help in concentrating than others!

We read a note from the Mannon family thanking the chapter members for remembering their mother at the visitation for her. Several of them plan to join us at our next gathering on March 5 to thank the chapter in person.

We passed around a schedule of rides that we have planned with IA-O. The rides will be in our calendar of events in the newsletter and on the website. We will also plan additional rides as we get into the riding season and invite IA-O to join us.

The weather prediction for the next week or so is for several chances for a winter mix of ice and snow with freezing weather. Please be extra careful as you venture out on the roads.

Upcoming Events Include:

- Feb 8, IA-O Gathering, Machine Shed, Davenport, 9:00 a.m.
- Feb 18, H-2 Coffee, New Windsor Depot, 5:30 p.m.
- Mar 4, H-2 Gathering, Side Trax Bar & Grill, 6:30 p.m. (Eat 5:30)
- Apr 24, Lunch at Gators Grill, Burlington, IA, Noon
