Sunday Reflection: The Most Holy Trinity

The Lord Jesus has revealed to his disciples the great mystery of our faith: the triune nature of God and the inseparable union of the eternal Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Jesus' mission is to reveal the glory of God to us - a Trinity of persons; God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit - and to unite us with God in a community of love. The ultimate end and the purpose for which God created us is the entry of God's creatures into the perfect unity of the blessed Trinity.

The mission of Jesus and of the Holy Spirit are the same. That is why Jesus tells his disciples that the Spirit will reveal the glory of the Father and the Son and will speak what is true. Before his Passover, Jesus revealed the Holy Spirit as the "Paraclete" and Helper who will be with Jesus' disciples to teach and guide them "into all the truth" (John 14:17). In baptism we are called to share in the life of the Holy Trinity here on earth in faith and after death in eternal light. Clement of Alexandria, a third century church father, wrote: "What an astonishing mystery! There is one Father of the universe, one Logos (Word) of the universe, and also one Holy Spirit, everywhere one and the same." May the triune God bless all of us and our families.

† Saint of the Week: St. Anthony of Padua

St. Anthony of Padua was born in Portugal in 1195 to a wealthy family and was raised in the church. In 1220 he joined the Franciscan Order in hopes of preaching to the Saracens (Muslims) and be martyred.

On his way to Morocco, he became seriously ill and was forced to return home. However, his ship back to Portugal was blown off course and eventually landed in Sicily. Because of his continuing poor health, he was not allowed to pursue his missionary work among the Saracens. Instead, he taught theology in Italy and France.

He was greatly admired as a preacher and was noted for his simple yet profound teaching of the Catholic faith. He died on his way to Padua, Italy, where he is buried.

Anthony was the most celebrated of St. Francis of Assisi's followers and had the reputation of a miracle worker. In art he is shown with a book, a heart, a flame, a lily, or the child Jesus. Among his writings are sermons for Sundays and feast days which were published in 1979. Both Padua and Portugal claim him as their patron saint, but he is best known for being invoked for the return of lost property.

Prayer to St. Anthony

St. Anthony, perfect imitator of Jesus, who received from God the special power of restoring lost things, grant that I may find [name the item] which has been lost. At least restore to me peace and tranquility of mind, the loss of which has afflicted me even more than my material loss. To this favor, I ask another of you: that I may always remain in possession of the true good that is God. Let me rather lose all things than lose God, my supreme good. Let me never suffer the loss of my greatest treasure, eternal life with God. Amen.
