Introduction to the Liturgy of the Word

- 2 Kings 5:14–17 The foreigner Naaman humbles himself and receives God's healing.
- Psalm 98 "The Lord has revealed to the nations his saving power."
- 2 Timothy 2:8–13 If, like Christ, we hold out even to death, we will reign with Christ.
- Luke 17:11–19 Ten lepers show faith in obeying the Lord, but in thankfulness one goes a step farther—straight into the kingdom of God.

Today's readings extol the virtue of gratitude. We hear first of Naaman, a foreigner, who is so grateful to Elisha and the LORD for curing his leprosy that he returns to offer gifts. In the Gospel, another foreigner—a Samaritan—returns to Jesus to offer thanks after his leprosy is cured.

May we be as grateful as them for God's blessings upon us, starting with our "Thanks be to God" for the saving power of God's word.

World Mission Sunday Collection

October 19th

It is a vital time for all Catholics to support the spread of the Gospel in mission territories. This year's theme, is "Missionaries of Hope among the peoples." The contributions collected on World Mission Sunday are crucial for sustaining the Church's mission in over 1,150 territories where the Church is still young or struggling. Historically, the Church in the United States, was once a beneficiary of these missionary efforts, and now we can give back and support our brothers and sisters around the globe. Let us prepare our hearts and minds to engage fully in this mission throughout the month.

Condolences to the family of Wilford Crowe†

Spiritual Life Committee

Vicar General and Chancellor

Question:

I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer:

A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest.

The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.
