The above petition and change of status have been approved. The status of the named foreign worker(s) in this classification is valid as indicated above. The foreign worker(s) can work for the petitioner, but only as detailed in the petition and for the period authorized. The above petition has been approved for the classification requested. It has been determined that the named worker(s) are not eligible for the requested change of status. You will receive a separate notice explaining the reasons for this determination.

Even though the named worker(s) are ineligible for a change of status, they may depart the United States and apply for the proper visa at a consulate abroad. Then they may apply at a Port of Entry to reenter the U.S. based on that new visa. The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice and forward the lower portion to the worker(s) for presentation at the U.S. Consulate.

To speed this process, we have sent notification of the approval of the classification to the consulate listed above. If you have any questions about visa issuance, please contact the consulate directly.

If a visa is issued, upon admission in this classification the worker(s) will be authorized to be employed by the petitioner for the authorized period pursuant to the terms and conditions of the petition. The petitioner should keep the upper portion of this notice and a copy of the Form I-94, Departure Record, for each worker, to show that the employment or training of each of the workers included in the petition is authorized.

If the worker(s) will apply for a visa at a consulate other than the one listed above, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, to request us to notify the new consulate.

Please read the back of this form carefully for more information. If you have questions about tax withholding, please contact the Internal Revenue Service. Changes in employment or training may require you to file a new Form I-129 petition.
