

BenEve Educational Consulting

Putting the Pieces Together

Queen's University

With the support of the ESS

Trainers:

Donna Bennett & Michael Eveleigh

"Dealing with Challenging People"

Learn to deal with those awkward conversations with parents. Practice conversing with parents about their concerns and ways to de-escalate negative talk. Most importantly, learn how to foster positive parent/teacher partnerships.

January - 2018

Registration form available at www.edubeneve.ca

Tuesday, Jan. 30th, 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm (registration 5:45 pm)

Location: Duncan McArthur Hall, Room TBA

Email registration to Donna Bennett at: edubeneve@hotmail.com

Cost: $40 e-transfer in advance

Training is open to education students and educators.

For availability & more details, email Donna Bennett or call (647) 624-5420

As JK to 12 educators both in Canada and overseas, we have experienced challenging situations and conversations with parents. With over 35 years each as educators, teachers, counselors and administrators, we have trained over 4000 educators in Ontario, Quebec, and overseas in the Middle East.

Donna Bennett and Michael Eveleigh:

Educational Consultants and Certified "Tribes®" Trainers