

Fisher, Regina

Regina Fisher, 96, resident of Warren and formerly a longtime resident of both Detroit and Port Austin, died Saturday, March 31, 2007. She was the beloved wife of the late Edward Fisher (who died September 30, 1999); loving mother of the late Ernest (Helen) Fisher, Lorraine (the late Donald) Vargo, and Marlene (Edward) Koss; daughter of the late Edward and the late Frances Stockoski; grandmother of 13; great grandmother of 17; and great great grandmother of one; sister of Helen (Steve) Lapka, Josephine (the late Martin) Korleski, Lillian (Roy) Wills, Irvin (the late Dorothy) Stockoski, Leonard (the late Rita) Stockoski, Roman (the late Elizabeth) Stockoski, the late Chris (the late Stubby) Wolfe, the late Mary (the late James) Palmer, and the late Emma (the late William) Yaroch. Regina was born May 8, 1910 in Dwight Township, near Port Austin. Regina attended Ford School in Dwight as a young girl. As an adult, she liked to cook, bake, sew and crochet. Regina and Edward Fisher were united in marriage on May 31, 1929 at St. Michael's Parish in Port Austin by the late Fr. Rosinski. As a young married couple, Regina and Edward moved to Detroit to raise a family. She was employed at the Emmet Shop in Detroit until she retired. She was a member of Holy Name Church in Detroit and the Christian Mother's Sodality in Detroit. Following retirement, Regina and Edward moved back to Port Austin. She was a member of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Port Austin, the Holy Rosary Sodality, the League of Catholic Women of Huron County, the Senior Citizens of St. Michael's Parish, the U & I Club, and a lifetime member of the St. Jude Guild. The couple celebrated 70 years of marriage prior to Edward's death in 1999. Regina moved to Warren following Edward's death. A funeral Mass was conducted on Tuesday, April 3, 2007, at St. Dennis Catholic Church in Royal Oak. Burial was in St. Michael's Cemetery. Donations can be made to the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, 4390 Conner Street, Detroit, Michigan, 48215. Arrangements are by the Edward Swanson & Son Funeral Home in Madison Heights.
