Mix-It-Up ~ Improv, Acting, and Character Development

Dates: July 8th—12th From 1pm—3pm

Participants in this class will spend their class time exploring improvisation, a form of live theatre in which the plot, characters and dialogue of a game, scene or story are made up in the moment.

Students will learn to create a scene, speak, act, react, and move in an encouraging environment without preparation. Improvisation strengthens self-confidence, speaking skills, and creativity as well as acting skills.

In addition, students will be coached on the art of character development and work on these skills to improve stage presence and connecting with the audience.
