ISIS Martyring Children

Little Ones Not Willing to Recant Jesus

Sometimes the important things to Christians that go on in the Middle East do not make it to the headlines or even the sublines. My former pastor received an email yesterday, September 29, about the conditions with missionaries in these terror-stricken countries.

ISIS (Islamic State of Iraq and Syria) is a gruesome group of Muslims who hate Christians and Jews (see the Soulwinner Issue 52). They murder Christians among their own people in cold blood just because they refuse to say they are not Christians (refuse to recant their Savior). Today, that same Muslim group is going from door to door in Queragosh in Islam and asking the children to recant their Savior and all of them have refused. As a result, the children are being beheaded (The Hill). The UN has withdrawn and the missionaries are on their own. ISIS has taken over the town.

Sean Malone, who leads Crisis relief International (CRI). ISIS is within 10 minutes of where the CRI team is working. They had been smuggling food to Queragosh, and now the children have fallen to the forces of ISIS there.

President Barak Obama wanted to bomb Syria important targets, but he said he would get the opinion of Congress (as representatives of the American People) first. Although Obama did expect to get that opinion, he bombed Syria without it. It is expected then that these "Unconstitutional Wars" could go on for years. See New American.

Obama had to contend with the ISIS terrorists killing two white American journalists with a beheading (see ISIS Terror). He forewarned the forces of Iraq and Syria, but the flexed their muscle anyway. As you can see we now have a major disaster here.

The problem that the Muslims have with Christians and Jews goes back thousands of years, and its origins are in the Bible. The Soulwinner Issue 52 explains that conflict in detail, but it can summed up in a few statements. Abraham had two sons, one by the bond maid and one by the free woman. God promised the inheritance to the son by the free woman (named Isaac), but he also promised a great nation to the son of the bond woman (named Ishmael). This did not suffice for Ishmael because Jesus would come from the Isaac's bloodline. This made Ishmael very angry at God and the result was the nation of Islam. Ever since the rise of the Ishmaelite nations there was war between Islam and the Jews as well as hatred by the Islamists for the Christians, who they consider to be descendants of the Jews because both serve the same God Jehovah.

Considering all this suffering overseas—we only know about it through the news. What can be done about it? It is not really a matter of what man can do, because man will only complicate it all the more and most of our government officials are secular humanists and do not believe in Christ. It is what God can do. God shows us time and time again that we are powerless outside of our glorification of Him. Is that what we have been doing? At a time when people need us, America "a Christian Nation," have we been glorifying God? Have we been praying and fasting for these people in the Middle East? Have we been soul winning? Have we been going to a good, Bible-believing church? Have we been reading our Bibles? Because these are the only things that will effect this problem of children being beheaded. In place of what the US government is doing, there is nothing more we can do outside of glorify God—it is up to God. These people in the Muslim stricken countries and the missionaries trying to reach them are asking for one thing from us—prayer. And prayers get answered when you fast.
