Did you know

- When you turn 65 you will be in your "open enrollment" period which means you can choose any Medicare carrier without medical questions.
- You only have one open enrollment period.
- By Federal Law a Medicare Supplement Ins Co can only sell you a standardized Plan by letters A thru N.
- A Plan F must provide exactly the same benefits no matter what company sells it.
- Cost is usually the only difference between Medicare Supplement policies.

With A Medicare Supplement you can

- Select any hospital or doctor as long as they accept Medicare patients
- See specialists without referrals
- No restrictive networks
- Affordable coverage that pays your deductibles, copayments and coinsurance
