Dinner served at 6:45pm

Time travel with us back to the end of December in 1933 when Massillonians were partying to celebrate a New Deal and a new hope for their city and country. These parties were truly 'spirited' because prohibition had just been repealed. Playwright, Lee Lavery, along with local actors, will present "Happy Days are 'Beer' Again" in the ballroom after dinner. Get ready to discover the events, arts, sports, and special people that made 1933 a tough but remarkable year in Massillon!
