JAKARTA HALF-DAY CITY TOURS—TAMANI MINI—HOTEL (L)

Taman Mini Indonesia Indah: literally translated as “Beautiful Indonesia Miniature Park.” A culture based recreational area located in East Jakarta, with around 250 acres (1.0 km²). The park is a synopsis of Indonesian culture with virtually all aspects of daily life in Indonesia’s 26 (as of 1975) provinces. Separate pavilions with collections of Indonesian architecture, clothing, dances and traditions are all beautifully depicted. Apart from that, there is a lake with a miniature of the archipelago in the middle, cable cars, museums (insect museum, Komodo Dragon reptile museum, etc.), Keong Emas IMax cinema, a theatre called the Theater of My Homeland (Theater Tanah Airku), and other recreational facilities. Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant before returning back to the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. AN ADVANCE RESERVATION IS REQUIRED

JAKARTA HALF-DAY CITY TOUR—NATIONAL MUSEUM—HOTEL (L)

National Monument: One of Indonesia’s landmark, The National Monument (Indonesian: Monumen Nasional [Monas]) is a 433 ft. (132 meter) tower in the center of Merdeka Square, Central Jakarta, symbolizing the fight for Indonesia. Construction began in 1961 under the direction of President Sukarno. Monas was opened to the public in 1975. It is topped by a flame covered with gold foil.

National Museum: An archeological, historical, ethnological and geographical museum located in Jalan Medan Merdeka Barat, Central Jakarta, right on the west side of Merdeka Square. Popularly known as the Elephant Building (Indonesian: Gedung Gajah) after the elephant statue in its forecourt. Its broad collections cover all of Indonesia’s territory and almost all of its history. The museum has endeavored to preserve Indonesia’s heritage for two centuries.

Museum Fatahilah: Also known as Museum Sejarah Jakarta (Jakarta Historical Museum) or Museum Batavia. It is a museum located in what used to be a city hall (Stadhuis in Dutch) during the age of Dutch occupation. It was built 1707 – 1710 by the order of Governor General Johan van Hoorn. Similar to Dam Palace in Amsterdam, it consists of one main building with two wings in the east and west, a side building formerly used for office and court room and a basement formerly used as a prison. Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant before returning back to the Ritz-Carlton Hotel.
