

CAROL SUE KELSO

1939 - 1999

Carol Kelso age 59, of Caseville died Wednesday, January 6, at Scheurer Hospital following a long battle with Muscular Dystrophy.

She was born April 17, 1939 in Caseville at the home of her parents, Edith (Langley) Jean Wiese and the late George Jean.

Carol lived in the Caseville area most of her life. After high school she attended Saginaw Business College. She worked for 15 years at Stolzman's Dairy Bar (now Walt's) and for many years the Bay Window restaurant.

She was member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, the Secret Sisters of Caseville and a charter member of the Caseville Eagle Auxiliary

Surviving are two sons, Jimmie Ray McElmurry and Monty Joe Jenkins; her mother, Edith Wiese and one brother, Al D. Jean all of Caseville.

Preceding her in death were her son, Brad A. McElmurry and a sister, Shelly L. Snider.

Funeral services will be conducted 11:00 AM Friday, January 8, at Champagne Funeral Chapel, Caseville. Rev. John Mueller, pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church will officiate with burial in Caseville Twp. Cemetery.

Memorials may be given to the Church.