

Woolner, Lorraine

Lorraine Woolner, 83, of Bad Axe died on Wednesday, Feb. 27, 2002, at Huron Medical Center. Mrs. Woolner was very active in her church. She enjoyed sewing, quilting and making crafts. She was 1935 graduate of Bad Axe High School. At different times in her life she was church treasurer, a Sunday school teacher, a bible school teacher, missionary president, 4-H leader and a scout leader. She enjoyed babysitting many children in the Bad Axe area. She was especially fond of Rod and Dave Rapson. Mrs. Woolner was loved and valued by her family and friends and will be missed deeply by all who knew her. She is survived by five daughters, Mary Jane Brown of Paducah, Ky., Marie Isbister and her husband, Mike, Sarah Wilson and her husband, Walt, all of Bad Axe, Kathaleen Shannon and her husband, Jeff, of Benton, Pa. and Mary Burnett and her husband, Paul, of Newtonia, Mo.; two sons, Bill Bardell, and Sam Glasgow and his wife, Elizabeth, all of Bad Axe; four sisters, Bernice Schwerin and her husband, Ralph, of Sandusky, Alta Gonzalez and her husband, Joseph, of North Muskegon, Marge Corning and her husband, Lowell, of Muskegon, and Inez Gerstenschlager and her husband, Al, of Bad Axe; one brother, Wilfred Apley and his wife, Sue, of Bad Axe; sister-in-law, Agnes Schultz of Bad Axe; step-daughter, Katherine McTaggart and her husband, Harold, of Port Hope; two step-sons, Bernard Woolner and his wife, Donna, of Capac. and Jim Woolner of Pontiac; good friend, Joan Smith of Port Hope; grandchildren, Mimi, Danielle, Leigh, Charlotte, Kevin, Ken, Gene and Susie; many great-grandchildren; her church family at the Bad Axe Nazarene Church, where she was a charter member; many nieces and nephews, step-grandchildren and step-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husbands, Alvin Woolner, Thomas Glasgow and William Bardell; an infant daughter, Sharon Bardell; sister, Evelyn Moeller; infant twin sisters; brothers, Wallace, Arch, and Stanley Apley; parents, Asa and Nellie Apley; granddaughter, Christina; daughter-in-law, Betty Bardell; stepsons, Alvin Jr., Kenneth and Frank Woolner. Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. on Friday, March 1, 2002, at MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe with the Rev. Donald Stroud officiating. Burial will take place at New River Cemetery in Port Austin. Visitation will be from 1 to 9 p.m. today and from 10 a.m. until the time of the service Friday. Memorials may be made to the family discretionary fund.