Why Mentoring?

We all need older, wiser influences in our lives whether we are 6 or 60. This role is often filled by parents, pastors, teachers, & extended family, but not always. In single parent homes kids often spend much of their time with just one parent who may be juggling school, work, relationships, & all of the adult household responsibilities. This means the kids, despite the best efforts of the parent, often end up fending for themselves.

Enter, Kinship & its mentors.

Mentoring can help improve a young person's attitude, encourage them to be motivated, provide a positive way to spend their free time, help them face social & academic challenges at school, & offer opportunities to consider different career paths as well. As we hear over & over here at Kinship, mentors grow & benefit from mentoring as much as the youth they mentor. Please consider taking the little bit of time it takes to mentor a child. YOU will make a difference!

Kids in Kinship

Can Mentoring Help my Child?

Are you a single parent doing your best to raise your child(ren), but find that there just is not enough time or energy left at the end of the day? Do you long for a positive male role model for your son, or a woman to be an example for your daughter? These are all examples of situations where Kinship youth mentoring can help.

Kinship is open to youth age 6-17 who reside in Morrison County or Long Prairie but do not live with both parents. Kinship recruits, screens, trains and motivates caring adults who would like to serve as positive adult role models for these youth.

Kinship youth are encouraged to participate in group mentoring activities like those highlighted in this flyer. There is no cost to Kinship participants to attend any activity.

Please call or e-mail with any questions you have.

What do you like about Kinship?

"I can open up to my mentor and share things..."

"Because I don't spent time with my dad or see him."

"I think I am more aware of what my decisions do and to not be afraid to speak up because I have a mentor."

"I love spending time with my mentor!"

Kinship Activities

Kinship offers monthly activities which provide an opportunity for hands-on, side-by-side growth of friendships between kids & mentors. The activities are either fun, educational, service oriented or a combination.

Examples include: making snow shoes, attending a baseball game, baking Christmas goodies, building a wooden squirrel feeder and canoeing, just to name a few.

Activities provide kids & volunteers who aren't matched time to share & grow. They also give current matches an option for something to do together. Activities are open to all screened volunteers & Kinship kids free of charge. Attendance isn't required but is highly encouraged.

"When at these activities, you can just see the enjoyment in the kids' eyes being able to have the one-on-one time with an adult "

- Volunteer Mentor

Firearms Safety

Kinship offers a DNR Certified Firearms Safety course in late summer. The course combines excellent hands-on safety training in the field with classroom teaching.

Kinship's small group philosophy continues with this course, which has a maximum of 12 participants. Youth must be at least 11 to sign up. Non-Kinship youth are eligible to register for a small cost.

Become a Mentor...

Can I be a Mentor?

Mentoring comes down to making a decision to "make a difference" by simply sharing your life's experiences, your family and time with a youth. That's it. Kinship's mentors are caring adults who chose to give four hours a month to the next generation. Kinship staff provides training, networking, support and motivational opportunities for its volunteers and matches.

So what is holding you back? There are youth in Kinship waiting for a mentor, a mentor just like you...
