

Seeking God by lcl

God created mankind in His image gave us a spirit and life. He cares for His children and desires that we should want to find Him, know Him and have a relationship with Him. Christ prepared all about us to lead us to realize that only an amazing God could have made all the universe and our environment as well as ourselves so perfectly. The spirit within us communicates with God and can only find peace when we know our creator. We are given a choice to choose and earnestly seek God or foolishly reject Him. God desires to guide and bless His creation, but will not force Himself on anyone. God surrounds us, but can only be known when a person accepts Christ and gains the Holy Spirit to open their eyes to spiritual things that cannot be seen or understood otherwise.
