

Miller, George

George A. Miller, 66, of Caseville, died Monday evening, August 11, 2003, in Traverse City, while vacationing, after a yearlong battle with lung cancer. He was born June 8, 1937 in Detroit at the home of his parents, the late George and Laura (Klimek) Miller. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict. On August 20, 1964, he was united in marriage to Jacqueline Geisz at St. Matthews Catholic Church in Detroit. He and Jacci moved to Caseville in 1975, where they raised their family. After their children left home, they moved to Walled Lake. George was employed at Aerotek in Pontiac as a Controls Engineer and recently stepped down for health reasons. While in Caseville, George was very active in his community. He was a former Boy Scout leader, member of Knights of Columbus, St. James Catholic Church, Novi, the Caseville Eagles and very active at St. Roch Catholic Church, where he was instrumental in starting the annual chicken BBQ. He also served as an usher, former sexton of the cemetery, Eucharistic minister and lector. George enjoyed teaching, flying, woodworking and robotics. He is survived by his wife, Jacci; four children, George Miller and his wife, Anna, of South Lyon, Gary Miller and his wife, Angela, of Canton, Yvonne Miller, of Northville and Jill Sherrill and her husband, Bill, of Metamora; six grandchildren, Shannon, George, Jennifer, Andy, Brodey and William; brother, Paul Miller and his wife, Anne, of Ypsilanti; two sisters, Janet Witzke and her husband, Robert, of Sebawaing and Joan Kloka and her husband, Charles, of Clinton Township. A funeral mass will be conducted at noon on Friday, August 15, 2003, at St. Roch Catholic Church. The Rev. Kenneth Yaroach, pastor, will officiate with burial in the church cemetery. Visitation will be from 2 to 9 p.m. on Thursday at Champagne Funeral Chapel in Caseville and after 11 a.m. on Friday at the church. Memorial gifts may be directed to St. Roch Building Fund or the American Cancer Society.