Immaculate Conception Parish Mission

To proclaim the good news of the Gospel; to build community among the parishioners that we may journey in our faith together, giving witness to love and unity; to serve the needs of others in whatever form they may exit in our midst and to celebrate the realities of our faith together.

St. Patrick Parish Mission

As a church community here at St. Patrick, we want to know, love and serve Jesus in our efforts in: Christian formation/faith development; worship; social services; and stewardship of resources.

The Ways of Praying

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Consider how there are five levels of communication, each level taking us deeper into a relationship and what it means to be human. One, the greetings we offer as we pass: Good morning! How’s it going? Two, a sharing of activities: what we did, what someone said. Three, an expression of ideas, as in what we think about raising children or our political opinions or why we believe there may be conflicts in the world. Four, revealing our feelings both positive and negative: feelings of love or gratitude or contentment as well as of being hurt or rejected or disappointed. Five, a sense of intense closeness and being with, perhaps even without speaking or using any words. Each level, then, takes us deeper into a shared relationship.

Consider, then, how ever-deepening prayer may follow that same pattern. One, memorized or rote prayer. Two, telling God what is on our mind, even though it is a one-sided conversation. Three, commonly called “meditation” but, more simply, thinking about God and life and our faith response, as in the musing that may follow spiritual reading. Four, often referred to as “praying our feelings,” such as reflecting on our human emotions and what they might say about us, our faith, and how the journey of our faith life is unfolding. Five, a sense of simply being with God, even without words, and simply resting in that holy presence. Each level of prayer, then, leads us ever more into a shared relationship with our God. ●

Reflect

How do I pray? Should I ask for the grace to grow in my prayer life?

Dear Padre,

Who wrote the Lord's Prayer? I know the Lord's Prayer comes from Scripture, but who composed it as we say it today?

When the disciples asked the Lord to teach them to pray, he taught them the prayer we know as the Our Father. Two versions of that prayer appear in the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. The version used in the Church's liturgies is derived from Matthew 6:9–13. In fact, citing St. Thomas Aquinas' Summa Theologiae, the Catechism of the Catholic Church calls the Lord's Prayer the “most perfect of prayers” (2774), teaching us not only what things to pray for in our prayer but also in what order, or priority, we should desire them. It is at the heart of every individual and communal prayer.

We pray the Our Father, bearing in mind and heart the intimate relationship we have with our God as sons and daughters by adoption through our baptism. The specific wording of our prayers is a work in progress. What we think of as the final wording is that which the Church has approved and makes the most sense for prayer as a community. What is most important is that the substance of the prayer reflects the same matter the Lord used in the prayer. ●

A WORD FROM POPE FRANCIS

Herein lies the novelty of Christian prayer! It is a dialogue between people who love each other, a dialogue based on trust, sustained by listening and open to a commitment to solidarity. It is the dialogue of a Son with his Father, a dialogue between children and their Father. This is Christian prayer.

ANGELUS, ROME, JULY 28, 2019

PAUL HARING

Prayer For A New Bishop

O God, eternal shepherd, who govern your flock with unfailing care, grant in your boundless fatherly love a pastor for your Church who will please you by his holiness and to us show watchful care. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Immaculate Conception School News
Ms. Dana Schroeder, School Principal | Judy Cobb, School Secretary | 573.564.2679 - School Office | immaculateconception@icschool-mc.org

- Samuel has been cleaning up the classrooms and teachers are starting to get things prepared for the new school year. We have also done a little painting.
- Families, please turn in your registration packets as soon as possible so we can be prepared with the proper number of textbooks and other materials.
- The 2025-2026 School Calendar, Supply List, and Dress Code can be found on our school website: icschool-mc.org
- We have several openings in the Early Childhood Learning Center for ages 2-4. Call the school and talk to Peggy if you would like to get your little one started at the ECLC!

HARVEST PICNIC SEPTEMBER 21, 2025

- The IC Quilters are currently quilting a large queen-size quilt for our Quilt Raffle. Mary Dickherber has donated a baby quilt for second place.
- We are still looking for a used pool for the Pumpkin Drop. If you have one to donate, please contact Julie at 573-489-2778.
- We are starting to send out some letters for Picnic Sponsors. If you know an individual or business that would like to be a sponsor, please let Judy Cobb know.
- We are also looking for vendors for the Vendor Fair and Cup Sponsors. Contact Megan Hans at 573-253-9476.

We will be handing out packets with more information and quilt raffle tickets before and after Mass on August 2-3, 9-10, and 16-17.

At the Harvest Picnic, besides having delicious food, there will also be fun games and activities for kids and adults, a bake sale, a country store, raffles, and Live, Silent, and Paddle Auctions. To finish the day, we will have the Pumpkin Drop at 3pm. We will need many hands to work at the picnic. Please be thinking about what kinds of items you will donate as well as where your talents will best serve the parish for this event. We need everyone's help to make this 9th Annual Harvest Picnic a success!

Square Up At The Harvest Picnic

The second part of "Square Up" will be at the Harvest Picnic. You will have the opportunity to purchase a ticket for $40.00. After all tickets are sold, four (4) winners ($250.00 cash each) will be randomly drawn.

Youth Group Activities

The Youth Group will meet on Sunday, August 10th following 10:00 AM Mass. We will discuss upcoming activities and meetings with lunch being served. Youth Group is open to anyone who has been confirmed and not graduated from high school.
