

ID Requirements Are Changing

Starting January 22, 2018, if you have a driver's license or ID issued by the state of Maine, you will need an alternate ID to fly.

For REAL ID Act information and a list of acceptable IDs, visit tsa.gov.

The REAL ID Act (P.L. 109-13) establishes the minimum security standards for state-issued driver's licenses and identification cards and prohibits federal agencies, like TSA, from accepting licenses and identification cards for certain official purposes, including boarding federally regulated commercial aircraft, from states that do not meet these standards.
