The musical score is presented in three systems. The first system shows the vocal staves for Soprano and Tenor, both with rests, and the piano accompaniment. The piano part consists of a simple harmonic pattern in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The second system begins with the vocal entries. The Soprano part has a rest, while the Tenor part enters with the lyrics "There is a place, where blooms a rose; and on that". The piano accompaniment continues with the same harmonic pattern, with a change to an Am7 chord in the third measure. The third system continues the vocal and piano parts.
