

PAUL E. BOLZMAN

1917-1994

Paul E. Bolzman, 77 of Sebawaing, died Saturday morning, June 4, at his home in Sebawaing Township following a six-week illness.

He was born May 25, 1917, in Sebawaing Township, the son of Walter and Vera (Dressler) Bolzman. He was married to Mildred E. Kundinger in Kilmanagh on Feb. 16, 1941, and she survives him. He had been bee-keeping farmer in the Sebawaing Area, and had been employed at the Michigan Sugar Company for 40 years before retiring 12 years ago.

He was a member of New Salem Lutheran Church, Sebawaing, and had served as chairman of the congregation for many years. He was also a church trustee, finance chairman and served on the cemetery committee.

Surviving, besides his wife Mildred are five daughters and their spouses, Marilyn and Arlen Bom of Frankenmuth, Norma and Howard Lewis of Midland, Florence and George Behm of Pigeon, Margaret and Donald Hahn of Unionville and Donna Bolzman of Wheeling, IL, nine grandchildren and one sister, Verna Taylor of St. Clair Shores.

He was preceded in death by three grandchildren.

The funeral service is taking place at 11 a.m. Tuesday, June 7 (today) in New Salem Lutheran Church, Sebawaing. Rev. Keith Siverty will officiate and burial will be in Silverlawn Cemetery. Dinkel-Juengel Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Friends wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider New Salem Church, American Cancer Society or the donors' choice.
