

SUMMER CAMP IS DIGITAL! AUGUST EVENTS

Contact the activity leaders if you are interested in an activity. Once registered, you will receive a Zoom invitation. Note: all times are Arizona time EVERYTHING LISTED IS ARIZONA TIME.

Date/Time	Group	Description	Contact to Register
Monday – Aug. 3rd 11:30 – 1:00	Ask The Interior Designer	Sheila will conduct a Zoom presentation where she will be delighted to answer any questions you might have regarding your own personal home and discuss the newest innovations on the market	Sheila Landau Buildor2@cox.net
Tuesdays – Aug 4th, 11th, 18th and 25th 12:00	Real Mah Jong	Play mah Jong with friends using the app Real Mah Jong. Real Mah Jong can be played on the computer, phone or on a tablet. You can get the app by going to https://realmahjong.com . We will socialize virtually while playing with each other as we would be playing in person. You will need two devices, one to play Real Mah Jong on and one to virtually see and talk with your table partners.	Hindie Dershowitz hindiedershowitz@gmail.com
Tuesday – August 4th 10:00 – 12:00	Newsies Zoom Meeting	Current events discussion	Stephanie Klopper, Gladys Simon, and Nancy Sacks rednoz@aol.com
Thursday – Aug 6th 10:00 – 11:30	“Rock Impresario Bill Graham and the San Francisco Sound” Presented by Rodney Paul	Impresario Bill Graham was crucial in establishing San Francisco as the epicenter for the mid-1960’s psychedelic music sounds of Jefferson Airplane, the Grateful Dead, Big Brother and the Holding Company with Janis Joplin and others. Graham was truly a self-made man, surviving the Holocaust and coming to the United States as an orphan child. We’ll talk beginnings in the San Francisco hippie scene and his emergence as a rock promoter using the Fillmore Auditorium, Winterland and other venues. The presentation will include videos of Graham describing the scene and some of the top bands he hosted	Carol Isacson cwisacson@yahoo.com

Date/Time	Group	Description	Contact to Register
Thursday – Aug. 6th 3:00 – 4:00	Creating a Chemical Free Home	From washing our hands to cleaning our countertops, floors, windows, and laundry, we're taking in unwanted chemicals into our homes and bodies. Even the hand sanitizers we are now using multiple times daily may contain unhealthy chemicals. Learn about the Dirty Dozen of additives, how to pick the best products for you, and tips to create a chemical-free home environment. All you need is a little knowledge and willingness to make some changes.	Carol Kadet carolkadet@gmail.com
Friday – Aug 7th 10:00--11:30	Friday Film Group Netflix/HBO via Zoom	Watch a movie on Netflix or possibly HBO - TBD and discuss via Zoom	Stephanie Klopper rednoz@aol.com
Monday – Aug. 10th 10:00-11:30	"Finding Your Ancestors"	Learn to use the internet for genealogy research to help build a family tree. We will look at several resources available for free and for a fee	Michelle Fischler Michelleyules@gmail.com
Tuesday – Aug. 11th 10:00 – 11:30	Summertime Reads	Book is "Department of Speculation" by Jerry Offill	Marcia Langer and Leslie Kiefus marciala@msn.com
Wed. – Aug. 12th 2:00 – 4:30	Bake With Me Part 2	During this session we will bake peach crisp and make homemade chocolate pudding (while the crisp bakes in the oven). Shop for the ingredients ahead of time and bake with me. This is a short and easy recipe using the very best of summer fruit and the chocolate pudding reminds us of our childhood	Debbie Gordon Mrsg395@gmail.com
Thur – Aug 13th 10:00 - 12:00	As Mama Told Me A presentation by Ettie Zilber	Come join Ettie Zilber as she presents her family's Holocaust history, based on the testimony published in "A Holocaust Memoir of Love and Resilience : Mama's survival from Lithuania to America"	Jan Lebovitz Janice.lebovitz@gmail.com
Thursday – Aug. 13th 6:30 -	Foreign Film Zoomies	Join us as we explore the world of foreign films. For August, a foreign film (most likely with subtitles) will be chosen for you to view on Netflix. We will provide the name of the film in advance so you can plan ahead.	Joyce Steinberg Joyces12003@gmail.com
Monday – Aug. 17th 10:00 – 11:00	Being An Entrepreneur and Starting/Running A Business During A Recession And A Pandemic Scott Sanders	Scott has owned Octane Raceway for 17 years and opened Mavericks just 10 days before having to shut it down due to the Pandemic. Mavericks is a high-end entertainment/bowling complex. He is an active member of the Entrepreneurs Organization (EO)	Jan Lebovitz - Janice.lebovitz@gmail.com

Date/Time	Group	Description	Contact to Register
Tuesday – Aug. 18 1:00 – 2:30	Chocolate Chip Kamish Bread(Mandel Bread) Benita Sonabend	Join Benita as she shows us how to make “Chocolate Chip Kamish Bread. If you would like to make it along with her, please request the recipe and it will be sent to you along with the Zoom invite, so you can have the ingredients ready. If not, please follow along and enjoy!	Linda Ullman linda@lindaullman.com
Tuesday – Aug. 18 10:00 – 12:00	Movie Group	Sheila and Harriett will select a Netflix movie for you to watch and will conduct a Zoom discussion	Sheila Landau Buildor2@cox.net Harriett Schwartz harriet0715@gmail.com
Wednesday – Aug 19nd 2:00 –3:00	Bake with Hillary	Bake with Me! Let’s make Mandel Bread! This interactive camp session on Zoom will offer the opportunity to make my mother’s recipe for Mandel Bread. It is beloved by all, yet it is a surprisingly simple recipe. I will send out the recipe in advance so you can be prepared to bake with me.	Hillary Kaminsky hrkci@aol.com
Thursday – Aug. 20th 10:00 – 12:00	“Share Your Story”	The subject for this discussion will be “What was the impetus that caused you to choose your particular career or to switch your career”	Judy Levine Judithlevine43@yahoo.com
Monday – Aug. 24th 2:00 – 3:00	Judy Laufer – Author	President of Little Egg Publishing Company. Judy was born in Budapest, Hungary and immigrated with her parents and brother to North America as a young child. She was raised in Montreal, Canada. An educator by trade, Judy has spent more than 25 years in education. Her experience ranges from a decade in the classroom to curriculum development, adult education and school administration. She is an award-winning author, community leader and philanthropist. Her most recent YA/Adult books, Choices (2018) and Hidden Pearl (2019) both won book awards.	Carol Isacson cwisacson@yahoo.com

Date/Time	Group	Description	Contact to Register
Tues – Aug. 25th 10:00 – 11:00	“Words of Wisdom from the past – Quips that stayed with us from our parents”	We all have sayings from our mothers and fathers that we have incorporated into our daily lives. Come share those with the group. We will laugh together as we see how many are similar. We will explore how they’ve shaped how we live, how we’ve raised children and how we see the world	Jan Lebovitz Janice.lebovitz@gmail.com
Wed. Aug. 26th 10:30 – 12:30	Books Around the World Book Club	The Murmur of Bees by Sofia Segovia. A book of historical fiction which takes place in Mexico. Each participant will read the book and we will discuss it via Zoom.	Nancy Sacks nhshobo@aol.com
Thursday – August 27th 10:00 – 11:30	PTSD	Larry Waldman, PhD will discuss Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD)- What it is and how it is treated	Nan Waldman - nanlarry46@gmail.com
Fri – Aug. 28th 10:00 – 12:00	Book Club	The book we will read is Have You Seen Luis Velez by Catherine Ryan Hyde. This book is very timely and I look forward to a lively discussion	Marilyn Morris rodonmi@aol.com
Friday Aug. 28 1:00 – 2:30	“Desert Hacks and Facts” Leonard Marcisz	Leonard Marcisz – An eclectic ramble through unusual facts that will enable Arizona residents and transplants to impress their friends, neighbors and out-of-state visitors while hiking in the Sonoran Desert. How can I tell whether that whiptail lizard is a female? How can I tell when the sun will set using only my bare hands? How can I find South when my GPS dies? What is sleeking and fluffing, and who’s doing that stuff? Why is that weird guy on the trail smooching the back of his hand? How can I catch a quail with a clothespin? The information imparted is unusual. But then, so is the Sonoran Desert	Jan Lebovitz. Janice.lebovitz@gmail.com
Monday – Aug. 31th 9:00 – 10:00	Xanadu Art Gallery	Xanadu Art Gallery (Scottsdale, AZ) owner Jason Horejs is second generation in	Carol Isacson - cwisacson@yahoo.com

		the art business. Jason's father, John Horejs, is an internationally collected landscape painter. Having lived and breathed art his whole life, Jason has dedicated himself to helping artists make a living selling their art, and to helping art lovers discover and acquire stunning and distinctive works of art. In Jason's presentation he will share engaging (and often humorous) stories of what it is like to grow up in the artistic household, insights into how galleries operate, and secrets to help art lovers become savvy collectors.
--	--	--	--