The times indicated on all steps may be extended by mutual written agreement, but both parties agree to resolve grievances or move the process forward without undue delay. During each step of the grievance procedure the effected employee (grievant) may have a CFPBA representative present or if not a member of the CFPBA a representative of his choice.

The losing party shall bear the expense of the Arbitrator, with each party bearing the expense of its own representatives. The party requesting a transcript of the hearing will bear the cost of the transcription. No employee shall be required to perform any act or function which is outside the scope of a police officer's function or not generally considered to be a bona fide police function. The duty of a police officer shall be as presently set forth or as amended in the rules and regulations of the City of Fernandina Beach, Florida, and/or the Fernandina Beach Police Department Policy Manual.

ARTICLE 11, LIABILITY

No employee shall be held liable financially for any equipment which is lost, stolen, damaged, destroyed, or otherwise rendered unusable unless the employee exhibited negligence or malicious intent with each instance of negligence or malicious intent being decided on its own merit.

ARTICLE 12, SAFETY AND HEALTH

- 12.1 No employee shall be required to operate a vehicle which is demonstrably shown to be defective or unsafe. Each marked police car shall be equipped with the necessary equipment to permit the employee to perform his/her duties. Such equipment may include, but not be limited to, emergency lights, sirens, long gun and case or rack, and rear seat prisoner cage. Every reasonable effort will be made to ensure each marked police car has a working MDT and In Car Video System.
- 12.2 Because the City and the Union are committed to providing a safe and healthy workplace, a Safety Committee made up of management and labor exists in an advisory capacity. The Safety Committee recommends improvements to workplace safety and health and identifies corrective measures needed to minimize safety and health hazards. A police officer will serve on the Safety Committee as a representative of the CFPBA bargaining unit and attend regular monthly meetings.

ARTICLE 13, WORKWEEK

- 13.1 The work period for employees shall be fourteen (14) consecutive days and the regular work schedule during that period shall consist of eighty four (84) hours. If calls for service permit, employees may take a one (1) hour meal break which shall be included as hours worked, however employees shall monitor their communications device(s) in the event that they are required to respond to provide police services.
- 13.2 Employees may attend training classes as approved and determined as necessary through the Department. Hours spent attending an approved training class will be counted as hours worked and the employee's schedule will be adjusted so that he/she works eighty four (84) hours within the fourteen (14) day work schedule. If staffing levels prohibit the adjustment of hours, employees will be compensated for training time attended as agreed upon in Article 14, Section 1 (14.1).
- 13.3 As required by assignment, employees may be required to report five (5) minutes early for assignment and orientation.

- 13.4 As the primary schedule, detectives assigned to the investigative function, will be assigned to work a 10.5 hour day, either Monday to Thursday or Tuesday to Friday.

ARTICLE 14, HOURS OF WORK; OVERTIME; COMPENSATORY TIME

- 14.1 Any time worked in excess of eighty four (84) hours in a scheduled work cycle of fourteen (14) days shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times the employee's normal hourly rate of pay. Such overtime compensation will be in the form of pay unless compensatory time is requested in writing by the employee. Overtime shall be paid bi-weekly based on the actual total work cycle hours. Approval of overtime and/or requests for compensatory time will be in accordance with departmental policy. Personnel schedules shall not be altered solely to avoid overtime pay, unless the employee affected has at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice of the shift change.

For the purposes of computing overtime, Annual Leave, Personal Time Off, Sick Leave or taking a Holiday off will not be considered hours worked. Compensatory Leave shall be considered as hours worked.

- 14.2 Employees required to attend court or another official proceeding as a result of their official duties during off duty hours, shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times their normal rate of pay or if requested the equivalent amount of compensatory time. Employee's will be compensated a minimum of three (3) hours for each appearance within a single day as long as multiple appearances are three hours or more apart. For multiple appearances that are less than three hours apart the calculation of time will start with the first appearance and end with the completion of the last appearance. If the aggregate time of the multiple appearances is less than three (3) hours, the employee shall receive a three (3) hour minimum. Employees assigned to the day shift will agree to make every reasonable effort to obtain warrants, file felony cases or initiate any other court related functions while on duty, as staffing levels permit. If circumstances prohibit completing these tasks while on duty, prior approval for overtime must be obtained as established by Department policy.

- 14.3 An employee may elect to receive compensatory leave time in lieu of pay, where applicable in this Agreement, up to a maximum accumulation of two hundred (200) hours. The Chief of the Department or his/her designee will notify employees who obtain a compensatory leave balance of in excess of one hundred and seventy six (176) hours and request that the employee take sufficient leave to reduce their compensatory leave account below one hundred and seventy six (176) hours. If sufficient compensatory leave is not scheduled by the employee, the Chief of the Department or his/her designee may require the employee to take compensatory leave in increments equal to a regular work day to reduce the employee's compensatory leave balance below one hundred and seventy six (176) hours. Such notice of required leave will be made at least five (5) days in advance. If for reasons beyond the control of the Chief of the Department or the employee cause the employee's compensatory leave balance to exceed two hundred (200) hours, all hours in excess of the maximum shall be in the form of pay. An employee wishing to take compensatory leave time shall request such through his/her supervisor. The supervisor shall approve any such request as long as minimum staffing levels are met. An employee separating from the Department on a voluntary or involuntary basis shall receive lump sum payment for accumulated compensatory time. Employees may elect to sell back up to seventy five (75) hours of compensatory time each year. Request for sell back must be made during the month of November and payout will be made on the pay period before Christmas of that year.

- 14.4 Qualified Field Training Officers holding the rank of police officer or police corporal will be selected by the Chief of the Department or his/her designee to train new police officers. Each Field Training Officer's performance and current training will be reviewed annually. Officers are expected to maintain current educational and training standards that qualify them to be a Field Training Officer. For each work hour that a Field Training Officer is assigned to train a new police officer, the Field Training Officer shall be compensated ten percent (10%) above their base pay.

If a qualified police officer is available to perform Field Training duties, then the police officer will be assigned over a police corporal.

A Field Training Coordinator holding the rank of Police Corporal or Police Sergeant will be selected by the Chief of the Department. The Field Training Coordinator will assign recruits to Field Training Officers, coordinate all Field Training documentation and liaison with the Chief of Police concerning Field Training issues. The Field Training Coordinator will also be expected to maintain current educational and training standards of a Field Training Officer. The Field Training Coordinator will be compensated an additional five percent (5%) annually of his/her base salary.

Article 14.4 will take effect 10-01-2020.

- 14.5 Any employee whose primary shift assignment starts at or after 1400 will receive an additional two (2%) differential pay above their normal base salary. Primary shift in this section applies to employees who have a regularly scheduled shift that starts at or after 1400 and not an occasional shift adjustment or the occasion of working overtime on another shift.

ARTICLE 15, RECALL, STANDBY AND ON-CALL TIME

- 15.1 Any employee who is required to report back to work or perform any official police related function that requires travel to a specific location after having completed his normal tour of duty and after having left work for at least one (1) hour or prior to one (1) hour before starting his normal tour of duty, shall be paid at the rate of one and one-half (1 ½) times his normal hourly rate of pay or compensatory time for the actual time spent performing such function. Such compensation shall not be less than three (3) hours, unless the employee is ordered to report back to work to complete police related functions that should have been completed prior to leaving work at the end of their shift.

- 15.2 Any Officer who is scheduled by or called in by a Bureau Commander or his/her designee to work during their regularly scheduled time off to fill a patrol officer vacancy shall be considered to be in a Call Back status and be compensated at one and one half (1 1/2) the rate of pay for the hours worked.

This article shall not apply an employee who stays over their normal shift hours to complete a previously assigned call for service. In such instances the employee will be covered by Article 14.1 of this agreement.

- 15.3 An emergency standby assignment is made when an employee is notified by a supervisor or designee that they must be ready to be called to work in an urgent situation during their off-duty time. The employee will then be required to remain available via telephone and be available to report to duty within one (1) hour when notified. If an employee has not been contacted within six (6) hours after being placed on emergency standby, that employee will no longer be obligated to be prepared to report for duty.

For each hour an employee is in an emergency standby status they will be compensated at the rate of one half (½) of their normal pay.

Once an employee on an emergency standby status is contacted and ordered to report for duty, that employee will be considered in a Call Back status and compensated at a rate of time and one half (1 ½) from that point forward and for each hour worked.

If “non-essential” or “non-critical” City employees are ordered not to report to work due to some level of emergency or weather related incident, then those employees required to work their regular schedule will be compensated at time and one half for each hour worked. Employees also have the option of earning compensatory leave time in lieu of cash overtime.

- 15.4 Detectives are required to serve on-call as follows: An on-call schedule will be posted at the first of each month, indicating the week which that detective will be on call. Each detective will have access to said schedule. It will be the responsibility of the supervisor of the Detective Division or his appointee to ensure this is accomplished. Detective

While a detective is on-call, he/she will remain in contact with police headquarters via telephone or radio.

Detectives on-call will arrive at the assigned location no later than one (1) hour after notification. Actual distance restraints are the discretion of the detective as to allow for the one (1) hour response. When practical, the detective will arrive at the scene as soon as possible, with one (1) hour being the maximum allowable response time.

If the detective cannot respond within the one (1) hour response time, he is to notify the head of the Detective Division, prior to being called, who will make every effort to reassign the on-call status to another detective or fill this requirement himself. It is understood that this accommodation will not be abused by the detectives.

Detectives will not allow themselves to become impaired while on-call status is in effect for them. This is not limited to alcohol, but also prescription medication. If the use of prescription medication is unavoidable, and the detective feels his faculties have or will be impaired, he is to contact his immediate supervisor, or assistant supervisor.

If a detective will be out of response range, or out of contact, during his/her on-call time, the detective will contact his/her immediate supervisor, or failing this, the assistant supervisor. It will be the responsibility of the on-call detective to make these arrangements, and to notify police dispatch of the change.

Detectives are encouraged to adhere to the normal dress code in effect for investigators when called out, but this is many times impractical. However, no shorts, tank tops, or bathing apparel will be worn to a call-out, or other clothing items which would obviously bring discredit or embarrassment to the Department.

A detective placed in an on-call status will be paid for two (2) hours at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) their established rate of pay each day for the week in which the employee is on-call. The two (2) hours will cover the first physical response to a location within a 24 hour on call period. If the first response takes longer than two (2) hours then the total hours will be paid at the overtime rate.

Subsequent call outs within a 24 hour on call period will be considered as "call back" and compensated at a rate of time and one half (1 ½) with a three (3) hour minimum.

Issues handled over the telephone, radio, computer or other such device that do not require a physical response will be conducted in consideration for the two (2) hours of on call pay that is received for being in an on call status. However, if the two hours is used on a physical call out, then time spent addressing such issues electronically will be credited as compensatory time.

16, LEAVES

16.1 Holidays:

The following days shall be considered to be holidays, entitling employees to have the day off with pay or if required to work, in addition to the regular holiday pay the employee shall be compensated at the rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times his normal hourly wage for the hours worked, except that this compensation will be at double (two times) his or her normal rate for Christmas Day only. Compensatory time in lieu of holiday pay may be granted if mutually agreed upon by the employee and the Chief of the Department. If a holiday falls on an employee's assigned day off he shall receive twelve (12) hours (or the number of hours as consistent with the work schedule for the job) pay or compensatory time at his normal hourly rate of pay. If a holiday falls during an employee's vacation, he/she will not be charged any leave time for that day and paid for the normal shift as holiday pay.

This compensatory holiday must be utilized between the dates of May 15th and September 30th, with no provisions for carry over. This compensatory holiday will not be extended to members who are not scheduled to work on May 15th.

16.2 Sick Leave:

If the employee has reached maximum medical improvement, his or her right to compensation shall be governed by the Workers' Compensation Law, the employees' disability/pension rights, and other benefits to which the employee may be entitled under this contract.
- (b) If the employee has not reached maximum medical improvement, the employee shall be medically examined to determine whether the employee's injury is of a nature which prevents their return to duty as a police officer.
