Comedienne April Brucker
America's Foremost Female Ventriloquist

A hot blonde from Vegas and a cast of sassy puppets; what could possibly go wrong? "It's Your Ventriloquist from Vegas!" is a one-woman touring show direct from The City of Entertainment starring comedienne April Brucker.

April's television credits include "Entertainment Tonight" (CBS Paramount), "Inside Edition" (King World), "Judge Jerry" (NBC Universal Syndication), "The Layover" (Travel Channel), "My Strange Addiction" (TLC), "Today" (NBC), "Videos After Dark" (ABC), "The Wendy Williams Show" (FOX), "What's My Secret?" (MTV), "What Would You Do?" (ABC), plus many other network, cable, and international television shows.

Growing up in Bethel Park, Pennsylvania, April Brucker spent more than a decade living, acting, and performing in New York City at cabarets (Don't Tell Mama, The Duplex, The Metropolitan Room), in comedy clubs (Broadway Comedy Club, New York Comedy Club, Standup New York) and in off-Broadway shows, including "Murdered by The Mob," New York's longest running dinner theater production. In Las Vegas, she has performed at Notoriety Theater, Planet Hollywood Resort & Casino and recently in a nine-month residency as the special guest star in the classic showgirl revue BurlesQ at Alexis Park Resort Las Vegas.

April earned her Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Acting at New York University's Tisch School and was awarded a Master of Fine Arts Degree in Creative Writing & Screenwriting from Antioch University Los Angeles.

She is the author of several books, including "I Came, I Saw, I Sang — Memoirs of a Singing Telegram Delivery Girl" (Infinity Publishing, 2012) and "Don't Read My Lips! — America's Foremost Female Ventriloquist Reveals the Secrets of How to be a Successful Vent" (CFB Bestsellers, 2021).
